Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet, Kaspersky, Sophos flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

The website at 008008.cc is a short Chinese-language promotional landing page for “K8,” presenting online casino and gambling services that combine sports and electronic gaming with registration incentives and wagering funded through user deposits.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site presents a material scam and sensitive-interaction risk because external reputation checks recorded malicious detections and confirmed blacklist status across multiple sources. The homepage is exceptionally sparse, using promotional language such as “registration gifts” and an “approximately billion-level prize pool” without identifying a clear product, operator, or supporting service detail. The deposit-before-service model and aggressive promotional framing increase exposure to financial loss, while no brand impersonation or conflicting legal-entity names were observed; the confirmed reputation contradiction is nevertheless sufficient to require a strongly defensive posture.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage contains approximately 45 characters of visible text and promotes “K8,” registration rewards, sports/electronic gaming, and a large prize pool.
- External reputation telemetry recorded 20 malicious detections, with Fortinet, Kaspersky, and Sophos among the flagged providers; blacklist status was confirmed by two sources.
- The current registration record lists 2026 and an age of approximately 0.19 years; the historical record contains 127 snapshots spanning 2011–2025 across 15 tracked years, establishing a material provenance discrepancy that does not independently verify continuity of the present operator.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The available landing content does not disclose a licensing authority, license number, or clearly identified operating entity. That is a regulatory and transparency verification gap rather than, by itself, proof of fraud; in this case it compounds the external reputation findings and the unverified connection between the site and a real-world operator. The available third-party broker dataset contained no match, which provides no regulatory endorsement and does not offset the absence of on-page licensing evidence.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies the service through the “K8” branding but does not provide a corporate legal name, licensing authority, or license number.
- The site’s current registration record lists Spaceship, Inc. as registrar and a creation date of 2026-06-07.
- The site is served through AS13335, Cloudflare, Inc.; its TLS certificate is issued by WE1 using Domain Validation (DV) and is valid through 2026-11-04.

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an institution should independently confirm the operator’s legal identity and gambling authorization with the relevant jurisdictional regulator, using registry information obtained outside the website. Payment arrangements, withdrawal terms, dispute mechanisms, age and jurisdiction restrictions, and the beneficiary of any deposit should be validated before funds are committed. Official support and contact channels should also be confirmed through an independent, offline route, and any account or payment activity should be subject to heightened monitoring.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage is promotional but provides no clear product description or supporting credentials for the gambling service.
- The observed business model explicitly relies on user deposits and wagering, with registration incentives used to drive sign-up.
- The site had no login form, sensitive form, wallet connection, or password-external form during the observed interaction, but this does not validate future destinations or transaction flows.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical trust risk, with the site unsuitable for credentials, account access, or financial interaction on the available evidence. Apparent service legitimacy is not established, and the combination of confirmed external threat detections, sparse promotional content, and unresolved operator attribution warrants treating the website as hostile to sensitive use.

Infrastructure Integrity

Cloudflare CDN/WAF protection provides a legitimate network-protection layer and limits direct exposure of the hosting environment, but it is only a mitigating technical control and does not establish that the underlying service or operator is trustworthy. All observed addresses were Cloudflare edge infrastructure, with no origin candidate identified during the analysis.

Closing Assessment

The appropriate institutional action is to block or isolate sensitive interaction with the site and require independent legal, payment, and operator verification before any exception is considered.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about 008008.cc at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
