Full analysis

Overview

An Arabic-language ecommerce storefront presents beauty services and cosmetic products through product listings, service-booking options, account functions, shopping-cart purchasing, shipping information, and customer-policy pages; its apparent business model is direct retail sales and beauty-service bookings.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site's visible content resembles a small beauty retailer rather than an investment or credential-harvesting operation, and no visible brand-impersonation pattern was identified. Nevertheless, the domain is associated with confirmed blacklist detections from multiple external sources, including three malicious and one suspicious detection, creating a material contradiction that outweighs the otherwise ordinary storefront presentation. The homepage lists eyebrow and lip retouching services, hair-gap filling, eyeliner, and related cosmetic offerings with prices in Saudi riyals; these concrete offerings do not explain or neutralize the external reputation signal. No suspicious contact-email anomaly was reported.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies “متجر خلود المورعي” and displays beauty-service listings including eyebrow retouching, lip retouching, hair-gap filling, and eyeliner with add-to-cart functions.
- External reputation checks recorded 3 malicious and 1 suspicious detections, with `external_blacklist` set to true.
- Domain registration records show registration on 2017-11-27 and an age of 8.73 years; the domain is therefore long-established despite the current reputation contradiction.
- Historical records contain 55 snapshots spanning 2017-12-12 through 2026-03-16, covering 10 tracked years.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site provides dedicated “About,” shipping and delivery, privacy, terms-of-use, contact, and returns pages, which is a positive structural feature for an online merchant. However, no licensing authority or license number is claimed or verified in the supplied evidence, and the real-world operator identity remains unverified; this is a verification gap rather than proof of fraudulent conduct. The site’s ordinary retail model should therefore be assessed separately from the external blacklist findings, which remain the principal risk signal.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage footer links to “About,” shipping and delivery, privacy policy, terms of use, contact, returns, and sitemap pages.
- The business model is classified from the visible pages as online retail for beauty products and services, with direct purchases and service bookings.
- The domain registrar is PDR Ltd. d/b/a PublicDomainRegistry.com.
- The site’s transport encryption uses a DV certificate issued by YR1, valid through 2026-10-04.

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an independent check should establish the merchant’s legal name, operating location, ownership, and any authorization required for the advertised beauty services. The returns, shipping, privacy, and terms pages should be reviewed for a consistent merchant identity, refund process, delivery obligations, and payment protections. Contact channels should be confirmed through an independent route, and payment should be limited to methods offering meaningful dispute or chargeback protection until those checks are complete.

EVIDENCE

- The site exposes separate shipping, returns, privacy, terms, and contact pages for documentary review.
- The homepage offers account registration, login, orders, wishlist, cart, and service-booking functions.
- The visible storefront contains no sensitive form in the captured page analysis, but account and transaction pathways are present.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is low trust with elevated sensitive-interaction risk. The site presents a coherent retail storefront and has some signs of technical and historical continuity, but those positives do not overcome the confirmed external reputation contradiction or the unresolved operator identity. Sensitive account, credential, and financial activity should not be treated as routine.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site resolves directly to a single hosting address, with no detected CDN or WAF layer and no separate edge-IP layer identified. Direct hosting does not establish maliciousness, but it provides less intermediary protection than a mainstream reverse-proxy deployment; the observed geographic registry mismatch is an additional infrastructure inconsistency.

EVIDENCE

- Hosted on AS63410, identified as PRIVATESYSTEMS – PrivateSystems Networks, US.
- The resolved address is 209.42.196.88, registered through RIPE NCC infrastructure and associated with GB in the technical records.
- Infrastructure analysis found 1 unique IP, 0 edge IPs, and 1 likely origin IP; no CDN was detected.

Closing Assessment

The appropriate disposition is to restrict activity to non-sensitive viewing until independent merchant and authorization checks are complete; account login, credential submission, and financial transactions should remain suspended in the interim.

Written analysis generated 2026-08-18 by the TrustSniffer Analysis Engine from the evidence in this report.

What the analysis found

2 findings contributed to this verdict, raised by registration and ownership, analysis engine.

01 Governance Risk

- Registration details are held behind a privacy service, so no operator is named publicly. This is common and legal, and it also means there is nobody to check.

Registration and ownership rule:KF_WHOIS_PRIVATE

02 Sensitive Interaction Risk

- The analysis matched a pattern TrustSniffer treats as a direct threat to a visitor.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about 0557788520.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
