Full analysis

Overview

100%Culture is a French-language regional online magazine presenting articles on culture, gastronomy, cinema, society, events, literature, fashion and related topics. Its apparent business model is ad- and content-supported publishing, with editorial features and news intended for an informational audience rather than transactional or financial activity.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictions were observed: the site does not present a brand-impersonation pattern, phishing indicators, credential-harvesting forms, wallet-connect behavior or other high-risk interaction mechanism. One isolated external malicious detection was recorded, but it is not corroborated by the broader threat indicators, which show no corresponding major search or blacklist result; it is therefore a limited reputational signal rather than evidence of confirmed malicious activity. Behavioral testing did identify substantial page changes and external communications during interaction, although no hidden forms, password submissions, wallet-drainer activity or clipboard manipulation were detected. The available evidence supports ordinary informational browsing while leaving the real-world operator identity independently unverified.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies the service as “Magazine 100%Culture” and provides culture and news categories including gastronomy, cinema, society, literature and events.
- The homepage contains one cookie-consent form and no login or sensitive-data form; testing recorded no password-external forms, wallet-provider detection or clipboard-write activity.
- The domain was registered on 2007-03-14 and is 19.44 years old.
- The archive contains 412 snapshots spanning 2007–2026, covering 20 years with a maximum recorded gap of 1 year.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site appears to operate as an editorial publication rather than a regulated financial or investment service. Its available identity and contact navigation does not independently establish the legal entity operating the publication, and licensing or registration disclosure is unclear; this is a transparency matter requiring contextual verification, not an indication of fraud. Ownership opacity remains an administrative limitation, while the long operating history, established editorial content and valid transport security provide meaningful legitimacy-supporting context. No matching third-party broker record was identified, although that absence is reputational context only and is not a licensing determination.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage exposes “QUI SOMMES-NOUS” and “CONTACT” navigation but the supplied page evidence does not independently verify a legal operator or regulatory registration.
- The domain registrar is Abion AB; its recorded registration expires on 2027-03-14.
- The site’s hosting resolves through AS14670, operated by WHG-USE1 - WHG Hosting Services Ltd, GB.
- The transport certificate is issued by YR2, uses DV validation, and is valid until 2026-10-11T08:47:26+00:00.

What to Verify Next

Before high-value or sensitive engagement, an institution should independently confirm the publication’s operating entity through its own corporate or editorial records and confirm any registration requirements applicable to its jurisdiction and activities. Official contact channels should be corroborated through a separate trusted source, and any proposed payment, sponsorship or commercial arrangement should use documented contractual terms and payment protections. Routine reading and low-impact browsing do not present the same verification requirement.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage describes editorial coverage across culture, society, gastronomy and events rather than a clearly regulated service.
- The site includes dedicated “QUI SOMMES-NOUS” and “CONTACT” navigation suitable for independent identity and contact-channel checks.
- The page contains no sensitive form and no login workflow, limiting the immediate exposure associated with ordinary browsing.
- The page uses cookie-consent functionality and advertising/analytics elements consistent with a content-supported publication.

Summary Verdict

The website presents as an established, apparently legitimate regional publication with a moderate-trust posture and no observed scam or impersonation contradiction. Its principal limitation is not evidence of malicious intent, but incomplete independent confirmation of the operating entity and governance context. Confidence is therefore appropriate for informational use, with stronger assurance reserved for cases where the counterparty and transaction context are separately validated.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is served directly from WHG Hosting Services Ltd infrastructure in Great Britain, with no detected CDN or WAF layer and a single likely origin address. This provides a conventional, resolved hosting path but no additional edge-layer mitigation; infrastructure is consequently a supporting technical signal, not proof of legitimacy.

Closing Assessment

For high-value or sensitive actions, proportionate transaction safeguards and independent confirmation of the intended counterparty through a separate trusted channel are appropriate.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about 100pour100culture.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
