Full analysis

Overview

10thplanetjiujitsuwalnutcreek.com is a minimal WordPress “Coming Soon” landing page that invites visitors to subscribe for launch updates and exposes a “Login to WordPress” link, but it presents no identifiable product, service, company, or monetization model.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site carries a clearly elevated risk posture because external reputation checks recorded multiple malicious and suspicious detections together with a confirmed blacklist status. The homepage’s login-only presentation provides no surrounding business context, making the WordPress login difficult to attribute to a legitimate customer or administrative workflow. The domain’s historical continuity is a contextual positive, but it does not offset the external threat detections or establish that the current landing page is operated by a verified real-world entity.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage is a “Coming Soon” page with an email-subscription form and a “Login to WordPress” link, while providing no product or company context.
- External reputation checks recorded a confirmed blacklist status and malicious detections for the domain.
- Domain registration: 2013-06-10; age 13.2 years; registrar: Bluehost Inc.
- Web archive: 203 snapshots spanning 2018–2026, with 9 years tracked.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The available page content does not disclose a legal entity, licensing position, registration number, terms, or a defined regulated activity. This is a material transparency gap for any future service involving accounts, payments, or other sensitive interactions, although the absence of a license claim alone is not evidence of a scam. Identity verification remains unconfirmed, and the limited site content is insufficient to connect the page independently to a legitimate operating organization.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage contains only launch messaging, email signup functionality, WordPress references, and hosting-provider branding; no company or licensing disclosure is visible.
- The site's transport encryption is a DV certificate issued by YR2, which authenticates encrypted transport but not the operator's legal identity.
- Hosting infrastructure: AS31898, Oracle Corporation, United States.
- TLS certificate: issuer YR2; validation level DV; valid to 2026-11-04T23:37:42+00:00.

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an independent source should establish the operator's legal identity and confirm that the domain is an authorized web property of that organization. If the site later introduces a financial, membership, or other regulated service, the relevant regulator's public registry should be checked for the exact entity and any applicable authorization. Any future login or payment workflow should be reached only through independently confirmed official contact channels and should be assessed for consistency with the verified operator.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage currently provides no company name, service description, terms, or licensing reference against which an operator could be validated.
- The only presented interaction surfaces are an email-subscription form and a WordPress login link.
- The site's current content does not define a business model or explain the purpose of account access.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is low trust, with sensitive interaction risk driven by confirmed external reputation contradictions and insufficient site context. The available evidence does not independently verify the operator's identity or establish a credible business purpose.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site resolves to Oracle Corporation hosting infrastructure in the United States, and no CDN was detected in the supplied IP summary. The identifiable hosting environment and valid TLS provide basic transport and infrastructure context, but they are mitigating technical details only and do not authenticate the website operator.

Closing Assessment

Passive viewing is the proportionate use case at present; login, credential submission, account creation, and financial interaction should be withheld unless the operator and purpose are independently confirmed.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about 10thplanetjiujitsuwalnutcreek.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
