Full analysis

Security Alert

Kaspersky flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

The website presents itself as the online pretrial-intervention portal of the 26th Judicial District Attorney, offering court-ordered courses for residents of Bossier and Webster Parishes through a login-based process that leads to course completion, payment, and certificate issuance.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

Contradictions were observed. The homepage uses official-government presentation, identifies District Attorney J. Schuyler Marvin, and describes a plausible service model, but those on-site claims are not independently verified by the supplied evidence. The portal requires login credentials and involves payment after successful course completion, creating a sensitive interaction surface. Multiple external threat detections and a confirmed blacklist materially outweigh the site's professional appearance and the absence of obvious deceptive behavior in the captured page. The available evidence does not establish an identity inconsistency between named legal entities, but the external reputation conflict is sufficient to create a critical risk posture for login, credential, or financial activity.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies “26th Judicial District Attorney – Pretrial Intervention,” attributes a message to District Attorney J. Schuyler Marvin, and presents “LOG IN,” “HOW IT WORKS,” “SUPPORT,” and “CONTACT US” functions.
- External assessment recorded 5 malicious detections and 1 suspicious detection among 11 effective evaluations, including a Tier-1 threat detection; the site was also marked by an external blacklist.
- The domain was registered in 2018 and is approximately 7.93 years old through the recorded assessment date; registration is recorded through PDR Ltd. d/b/a PublicDomainRegistry.com.
- The archive contains 8 snapshots spanning 2021–2026, with 6 years tracked, indicating limited historical coverage rather than establishing continuous site provenance.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The available content supports an apparent public-service purpose but does not independently verify that the website is operated by the named district attorney or an authorized service provider. No license, registration number, or regulatory authority is claimed in the supplied site content; for a court-related paid service, this is a material disclosure gap requiring confirmation rather than proof of fraud. The site’s transport security is valid, but domain-validated encryption authenticates the domain connection and does not establish the legal identity of the operator.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage states that the service is intended for residents of the 26th Judicial District and describes a certificate being sent to the participant and the district attorney’s office.
- No license authority, license number, or registration claim is present in the supplied business-model and page-content evidence.
- The site’s TLS certificate is issued by Sectigo Public Server Authentication CA DV R36, uses DV validation, and is valid through 2027-01-03T23:59:59+00:00.

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an independent offline or independently sourced channel for the relevant district attorney’s office should confirm that this domain and the course provider are authorized for pretrial-intervention services. The intended payment recipient, certificate process, privacy handling, and dispute or refund arrangements should be confirmed directly with that office rather than through contact details presented only on the site. Credentials should not be reused from other services, and any payment should use a method offering appropriate transaction dispute protection.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage makes a specific government-service attribution that requires confirmation through an independent official channel.
- The captured page includes a login form and describes a fee-bearing completion process, making authorization and payment-recipient verification necessary.
- The page identifies Justice Learning Solutions as the platform provider, but the supplied evidence does not independently establish its relationship with the district attorney's office.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical, with a confirmed external reputation conflict that is incompatible with safe reliance for sensitive interactions. The site's official-looking presentation and technically functional page behavior do not overcome the evidence supporting elevated credential and financial exposure.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site resolves directly to hosting infrastructure operated by InMotion Hosting, Inc. in the United States, without a detected CDN or WAF layer; the resolved address appears to be a likely origin address. This provides no meaningful protective separation between the public service and its hosting endpoint, and infrastructure characteristics cannot offset the external reputation risk.

EVIDENCE

- Hosted on AS54641, InMotion Hosting, Inc., US; one unique IP was resolved and no CDN edge IPs were detected.
- The resolved technical artifact is 199.250.203.48 in the United States.

Closing Assessment

The appropriate course is to limit activity to non-interactive review until independent authorization is confirmed, with no submission of credentials or payment information beforehand.

What the analysis found

2 findings contributed to this verdict, raised by registration and ownership, analysis engine, external reputation.

01 Governance Risk

- Registration details are held behind a privacy service, so no operator is named publicly. This is common and legal, and it also means there is nobody to check.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about 26thdaclass.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
