- The operator behind the site could not be independently connected to a real-world brand or person.

Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet, Kaspersky, Sophos flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

This website is a very short personal homepage for James Bostock, presenting the message “I don't make games anymore, sorry.” It contains no apparent commercial, financial, e-commerce, or interactive business model and appears intended as a minimal informational personal page.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No identity contradiction or brand impersonation was observed in the homepage content, and the page contains no login form, payment mechanism, external links, or monetization. However, the domain has been blacklisted by external reputation sources, with 11 malicious detections recorded across the evaluated security services. These findings materially conflict with the page's benign appearance and are the controlling risk signal; the absence of overtly malicious page behavior does not resolve the external threat determination.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage states “Homepage of James Bostock. I don't make games anymore, sorry.” and contains 61 characters of visible text.
- External reputation telemetry recorded 11 malicious detections, 0 suspicious detections, and a confirmed blacklist status.
- Domain registration telemetry records creation on 2009-03-31T19:48:58Z and an age of 17.39 years, with Dynadot Inc as registrar.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The available page presents an individual personal-homepage identity rather than a regulated service, and no licensing claim or regulatory number is displayed. The operator's real-world identity remains unverified, with ownership opacity present in the available identity evidence. Accordingly, the site should not be treated as an independently verified corporate or regulated entity; if it is used to support any financial, commercial, or professional claim outside the visible homepage, that claim would require separate validation.

EVIDENCE

- The available homepage provides a personal attribution to James Bostock but no corporate, licensing, or regulatory disclosure.
- Hosting telemetry identifies AS31898, ORACLE-BMC-31898 - Oracle Corporation, US.
- The site uses a DV TLS certificate issued by YR2, valid through 2026-10-20T11:27:32+00:00.

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an independent offline route should be used to confirm that the domain is intentionally operated by the named individual and that any associated request originates from that person. Any proposed financial, commercial, employment, or regulated-service activity should be validated through the relevant official registry and a separately sourced contact channel; until those checks succeed, access should remain limited to passive viewing.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage has no forms, login functionality, payment flow, external links, or apparent monetization.
- Behavioral testing recorded 0 external requests, 0 wallet-connection runs, 0 hidden forms, and 0 password forms across 2 successful runs.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical, with a confirmed external threat contradiction overriding the site's minimal and apparently non-commercial presentation. The website's identity is not independently verified, and it is not suitable to treat as a trusted destination for sensitive interaction.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is associated with Oracle-hosted infrastructure, but no trusted CDN is identified in the available infrastructure record. Protective edge-layer mitigation therefore cannot be credited as a meaningful counterweight to the external reputation risk.

Closing Assessment

Sensitive actions should not be performed on this site; any necessary investigation should remain read-only until independent identity and purpose checks have been completed.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about 2demotion.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
