Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet, Sophos flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

This website is a short promotional landing page for an Asian online casino and betting brand presented as “K8 凯发·天生赢家,” advertising a 40% deposit bonus and claiming to be a “top Asian online entertainment platform” with “22 years of brand strength.” Its apparent business model is to drive user deposits and subsequent wagering through strong promotional messaging.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site presents a critical interaction risk. Two independent external blacklist sources identify the domain, and external reputation checks recorded 15 malicious detections and one suspicious detection, including detections from multiple established security providers. These findings are materially reinforced by the landing page’s deposit-before-service model, aggressive bonus language, limited substantive content, opaque value flow, and a claim-evidence gap: the page claims “22 years” of brand strength while the domain registration evidence records a substantially shorter registration period. No separate legal-entity identity contradiction or direct brand-impersonation finding was identified, but the confirmed blacklist status and malicious detections are sufficient to make financial interaction, account creation, and credential submission unsuitable.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage is a 47-character promotional landing page titled “K8凯发·天生赢家,” with no substantive legal, operational, or ownership information.
- The homepage advertises “40%超高存送” and “22年实力品牌,” combining a deposit incentive with a long-standing-brand claim.
- External reputation checks recorded 15 malicious detections and 1 suspicious detection; the domain was also identified by 2 blacklist sources.
- Domain telemetry records registration on 2026-02-09, with an age of 0.52 years.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The available site content does not present a license claim, licensing authority, registration number, or clearly identified operating company. This is a regulatory and disclosure gap rather than, by itself, proof of fraud; however, it is significant for a gambling service that solicits deposits. The real-world operator remains unverified, and the page’s minimal content provides no reliable basis for connecting the promotional brand to a licensed entity. The registrar is Spaceship, Inc.; this is an administrative registration fact and does not establish licensing or legitimacy. The site’s valid transport encryption likewise protects the connection but does not validate the operator or the gambling service.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage contains no disclosed license authority or license number.
- The homepage contains no clearly identified legal operating entity, registered address, or governing jurisdiction.
- The domain registrar is Spaceship, Inc.
- The TLS certificate uses DV validation, is issued by WE1, and is valid to 2026-11-04.

What to Verify Next

Before any engagement, an institution should independently identify the operating company and confirm its authorization directly with the relevant gambling regulator or licensing registry, using registry details obtained independently of the website. Payment processing should be assessed for chargeback, refund, and consumer-protection availability, and official support channels should be confirmed through an independent offline route. No deposits, credentials, or sensitive personal information should be submitted unless those checks produce authoritative, independently corroborated results.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage is promotional rather than a substantive legal or regulatory information page.
- The page’s stated business model requires a deposit before wagering or service access.
- The available technical behavior recorded external non-whitelisted network posts, supporting the need to validate payment and account-handling arrangements independently.

Summary Verdict

The website has a critical trust posture and should be treated as unsuitable for sensitive interaction. The available evidence does not establish a verifiable real-world operator, while the convergence of confirmed external threat detections and deposit-focused promotional behavior creates a materially elevated risk of financial loss or credential exposure.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is protected by Cloudflare CDN/WAF infrastructure, with observed traffic terminating on CDN edge servers and no origin server identified in the analysis. This provides a genuine layer of transport and exposure mitigation, but it is only a protective infrastructure characteristic and does not offset the site's external reputation findings or validate its operator.

EVIDENCE

- Served from AS13335, CLOUDFLARENET — Cloudflare, Inc., US.
- Four observed IP addresses were identified as Cloudflare edge addresses; likely origin IP count was 0.
- The observed edge address included 104.21.63.87.

Closing Assessment

The appropriate institutional posture is to block deposits and sensitive interactions pending independent confirmation of the operator, regulatory authorization, payment protections, and official support channels.

Written analysis generated 2026-08-18 by the TrustSniffer Analysis Engine from the evidence in this report.

What the analysis found

2 findings contributed to this verdict, raised by registration and ownership, analysis engine, behaviour in a sandbox, external reputation.

01 Governance Risk

- Registration details are held behind a privacy service, so no operator is named publicly. This is common and legal, and it also means there is nobody to check.
Registration and ownership rule:KF_WHOIS_PRIVATE
- The registration record withholds contact details for the operator.
Registration and ownership rule:KF_WHOIS_HIDDEN

02 Sensitive Interaction Risk

- The analysis matched a pattern TrustSniffer treats as a direct threat to a visitor.
Analysis engine signal:direct_threat
- The page sent data to a destination TrustSniffer does not recognise.
Behaviour in a sandbox rule:BEHAV_NONWHITELISTED_POSTS
- An external threat feed lists this domain: either Google Safe Browsing marked it malicious, or a significant number of malware engines flagged it.
External reputation rule:EXT_BLACKLIST_CRITICAL

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about 3115f.top at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
