Full analysis

Overview

Adstrip.com presents as a commercial premium-domain marketplace for brands and domain investors, offering the discovery, acquisition, sale, appraisal, auction, brokerage, and escrow-supported transfer of domain names.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictory scam, phishing, impersonation, or conflicting-identity indicators were observed. The homepage presents a coherent marketplace model, including premium-domain tiers priced from $1,000 to more than $100,000, escrow, auctions, appraisal, broker services, a claimed 24-hour transfer guarantee, and the claim that the service is “Trusted by thousands of brands worldwide.” These are commercially material claims that should be validated during a transaction, but the supplied evidence does not treat them as deceptive indicators. One isolated external detection was recorded without corroboration; it is therefore a soft reputational signal rather than a confirmed threat finding.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage describes premium-domain sales, escrow, auctions, appraisal, broker services, and a 24-hour transfer guarantee.
- The homepage displays “12,400+ Domains” and “Trusted by thousands of brands worldwide,” alongside customer testimonials.
- The domain registration record shows registration on 2002-04-12 and an age of 24.38 years.
- External checks recorded one malicious result, while broader supplied findings recorded no phishing or impersonation contradiction and no abuse reports.

Regulatory Verification Notes

Available evidence is consistent with an established, apparently legitimate marketplace, supported by a long-established registration, substantial on-page service detail, a coherent internal navigation structure, and valid transport encryption. The real-world operator identity remains independently unverified. The site does not claim a financial-services license, and the available evidence does not establish a regulatory registration; this is a verification and disclosure matter rather than evidence of a scam. The domain is registered through GoDaddy.com, LLC, while the site's business model is commercial domain brokerage rather than a clearly identified regulated financial service.

EVIDENCE

- The site links to About, Legal, Terms, Privacy, Contact, FAQ, Marketplace, Auctions, Appraisal, and How It Works pages.
- The domain is registered through GoDaddy.com, LLC, with a creation date of 2002-04-12 and an expiration date of 2028-04-12.
- Hosted on AS13335 (CLOUDFLARENET - Cloudflare, Inc., US).
- TLS certificate issued by WE1 with DV validation, valid to 2026-09-30 10:58:34 UTC.

What to Verify Next

Before credential or payment interactions, independently confirm the legal merchant or escrow operator through an applicable corporate registry and confirm whether any jurisdiction-specific licensing or registration applies. Review the Terms, Legal, and transfer-policy provisions for escrow custody, refunds, failed transfers, dispute handling, and liability allocation. Contact channels should be validated through an independent route, and payment should use a method that provides appropriate transaction protection.

EVIDENCE

- The site provides dedicated Legal, Terms, Privacy, FAQ, and Contact routes in its navigation.
- The homepage describes a four-stage process covering discovery, negotiation, secure payment, and transfer.
- The homepage states that payment is made through an escrow-protection system and that transfer occurs within 24 hours.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is high trust and low risk, with the available evidence strongly consistent with an established commercial website rather than a scam or impersonation operation. The principal qualification is that the real-world operator has not been independently connected to a verified legal entity.

Infrastructure Integrity

The website is protected by Cloudflare CDN/WAF infrastructure and resolves through Cloudflare-managed edge hosting. This reduces direct exposure of the service infrastructure and is a positive defensive signal, but it is not independently determinative of legitimacy.

Closing Assessment

Ordinary use may proceed on a calibrated basis, provided merchant identity, transaction terms, and payment protections are independently confirmed before submitting credentials or making a payment.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about adstrip.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
