Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

Benamejí City of Baseball is an informational sports and tourism website presenting a baseball stadium, facilities, accommodation, training camps, local activities, and related services in Andalusia, with contact and booking enquiries as its apparent business model.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site presents benign local-sports content rather than an overt financial or credential-harvesting scheme, and no brand impersonation or identity inconsistency was observed in the supplied page analysis. However, this benign presentation is outweighed by confirmed external reputation contradictions: the domain is blacklisted by the cited sources, with multiple malicious and suspicious detections and a Tier-1 threat detection attributed to Fortinet. The resulting risk is material for sensitive interaction; the website's ordinary appearance and stable browsing behavior do not neutralize the external security findings.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage describes Benamejí City of Baseball, its stadium, facilities, climate, accommodation, and sporting activities.
- The contact page contains one contact form and no login form, hidden form, wallet connection, or cryptocurrency functionality.
- External reputation testing recorded 4 malicious detections, 2 suspicious detections, and blacklist status from VT and an external blacklist source.
- A Tier-1 threat detection was recorded on the domain, attributed to Fortinet.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The apparent operating identity is likely connected to the Benamejí City of Baseball project, but it is not independently verified. The supplied content describes training camps, accommodation, event organization, and related services; it does not claim a financial-investment or regulated trading activity. No license, registration number, or licensing authority is disclosed in the available site content, creating a regulatory-transparency gap that should be resolved before any commercial engagement. The domain's established registration period and valid transport encryption are positive technical indicators, but they do not overcome the confirmed blacklist findings or establish legal status.

EVIDENCE

- Domain registration records show creation on 2017-10-17T11:18:02Z, an age of 8.85 years, and registration through Realtime Register B.V.
- The site is served from AS15169, Google LLC, Google Cloud, United States.
- The transport certificate is issued by YR2, uses DV validation, and is valid to 2026-10-21T23:13:19+00:00.
- The available business-model assessment identifies sports and local-tourism services and records no claimed license, license number, or licensing authority.

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an independent party should confirm that the Benamejí City of Baseball project, its operating organization, and its service arrangements correspond to a real local sports or tourism entity. Any proposed booking, accommodation arrangement, or event payment should be validated through independently sourced contact details and payment-protection procedures rather than relying solely on information supplied by the website. Licensing or registration should be checked with the appropriate Spanish or Andalusian authority if the proposed service falls within a regulated activity, and official support channels should be confirmed through an independent route.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies the project as being located in Andalusia and describes Benamejí BC, its facilities, and baseball history.
- The services and accommodation pages describe training camps, accommodation, event organization, and related local activities.
- The contact page provides the site's direct enquiry mechanism for bookings and service arrangements.

Summary Verdict

The website has a critical trust posture because confirmed external threat and blacklist findings conflict with its otherwise conventional informational presentation. Its apparent project identity remains only likely rather than independently established, so the site should not be treated as trustworthy for login, credential submission, financial activity, or other sensitive interaction.

Infrastructure Integrity

The domain resolves to Google Cloud infrastructure associated with AS15169, with no CDN detected and no origin candidate identified in the supplied network assessment. Google hosting and valid TLS provide limited transport and hosting-context assurance only; they are not evidence that the website or its operator is legitimate.

EVIDENCE

- Network resolution identified one IP address, 35.214.199.216, associated with AS15169 and Google LLC in the United States.

Closing Assessment

Pending independent confirmation of the operator and resolution of the external security findings, the appropriate posture is to restrict activity to non-sensitive observation and avoid credentials, account access, payments, or other irreversible commitments.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about benamejcityofbaseball.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
