Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet, Sophos flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

CAMFEB is an informational nonprofit website for Career Mothers For Exclusive Breastfeeding, presenting advocacy, workplace breastfeeding support, lactation facilities, reports, events, partnerships, donations, and contact channels for mothers, employers, partners, and donors in Kenya.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site's captured content is coherent with a nonprofit advocacy organization and shows no login form, sensitive data form, wallet function, or obvious on-page credential-harvesting mechanism. However, this benign presentation is outweighed by confirmed external malicious detections and blacklist listings, including detections associated with Fortinet and Sophos. The available evidence does not identify conflicting legal entities or a demonstrated brand-impersonation pattern, but the external threat signals create a material risk for sensitive interactions and prevent the site from being treated as safe merely because its public content appears charitable.

EVIDENCE

- Homepage content describes CAMFEB's breastfeeding advocacy mission, workplace-support services, events, partners, and donation-oriented model.
- Homepage behavior recorded no login form, hidden sensitive form, external password form, wallet connection, or wallet-drainer activity.
- External reputation assessment recorded 8 malicious detections and 1 suspicious detection; Fortinet and Sophos were among the flagged vendors.
- The domain was registered on 2019-03-19 and is approximately 7.42 years old; archive records contain 35 snapshots spanning 2020–2025, covering 6 years.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The About page identifies CAMFEB as a national advocacy and implementation organization and states that it operates in alignment with Kenya's Ministry of Health and the Maternal, Infant and Young Child Nutrition framework, including reference to the Health Act 2017. These are on-site representations rather than independent confirmation of legal status, governmental affiliation, or authorization. No license or registration number is claimed in the supplied site evidence, so the organization's legal and donation-related status remains a verification matter; this disclosure gap is separate from the external threat detections. No matching broker-reputation record was identified, but that absence is not a licensing or regulatory determination.

EVIDENCE

- About page names "CAMFEB (Career Mothers for Exclusive Breastfeeding)" and describes its organizational mission and policy alignment.
- Homepage publishes four social-platform links: Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and YouTube.
- Hosting resolves to AS31898, ORACLE-BMC-31898 – Oracle Corporation, US.
- TLS uses issuer YR2 with DV validation and is valid through 2026-11-05.

What to Verify Next

Before any donation, event payment, partnership commitment, or submission of personal information, an organization representative and its Kenyan legal or charitable standing should be confirmed through an independent registry or an offline channel not obtained solely from the website. Any Ministry of Health alignment, named partner, event, or fundraising destination should be corroborated directly with the relevant institution, and payment details should be checked for consistency with the independently confirmed organization. Official contact channels should also be confirmed through an independent route before communications are relied upon.

EVIDENCE

- The About page makes specific Ministry of Health, MIYCN-framework, and Health Act 2017 alignment claims that require external confirmation.
- The homepage presents "Donate Now," partnership messaging, and annual Breastfeeding Run material.
- The Contact page and homepage provide the organization's stated communication channels for comparison against independently obtained details.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical and unsuitable for sensitive interaction. The site has a plausible nonprofit presentation, but confirmed external threat and blacklist contradictions dominate the assessment, leaving the apparent organizational identity insufficient to support trust in transactions, credentials, or other consequential engagement.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is hosted by Oracle Corporation in the United States on AS31898, with no CDN or edge-IP layer identified in the supplied infrastructure facts. Its DV TLS certificate provides transport encryption, but that technical control is only a baseline protection and does not offset the reported reputation risk.

Closing Assessment

Access should remain limited to non-sensitive, read-only review until the organization, its claims, and any payment or data-collection channel have been independently validated.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about camfeb.org at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
