Full analysis

Overview

Clothing Junction is an established South African e-commerce storefront selling women's, men's, and children's clothing, footwear, and accessories in South African rand through conventional retail pricing, promotions, delivery, and online checkout.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No identity contradictions, brand impersonation, phishing indicators, or confirmed malicious reputation findings were observed. The site's long-established registration, substantial archival record, coherent retail content, and absence of deceptive investment or cryptocurrency mechanics support a legitimate commercial identity. Its login, registration, and password-reset functions are consistent with an ordinary customer-account workflow; no hidden forms, credential forwarding, cloaking, wallet access, or clipboard manipulation were detected.

- The domain-registration record identifies a creation date of 29 April 2009, making the domain approximately 17.27 years old.
- The web archive contains 63 snapshots spanning 10 June 2013 to 22 November 2025, representing 13 years of tracked history; no suspicious repurposing or semantic drift was established.
- The homepage presents a coherent fashion catalogue with listed rand prices, product categories, and standard account functions, while observed forms had no untrusted destination.
- External reputation checks recorded 0 malicious and 0 suspicious detections, no search-engine safety finding, and no confirmed external blacklist or signature match.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The business model is conventional consumer retail and does not present financial products, investment returns, brokerage services, or other activities for which the supplied evidence indicates a financial-services licensing claim. The registration record identifies Gemelli (Pty) Ltd as the organization and Thusa Business Support (Pty) Ltd as registrar, providing affirmative corporate-domain provenance. The available homepage content references customer-service, delivery, and return resources, although the supplied page evidence does not establish the full wording of dedicated legal or consumer-contract disclosures.

- The domain-registration record names Gemelli (Pty) Ltd as the registrant organization and records expiry on 29 April 2027.
- The homepage describes direct retail sales, prices in South African rand, shipping incentives, and customer-service resources.

- The observed content makes no brokerage, cryptocurrency, investment-yield, or financial-regulatory claim.
- The third-party broker dataset contains no matched broker profile; this is contextual only and does not constitute a licensing determination.

What to Verify Next

Before purchase, the applicable delivery area, estimated fulfilment period, return window, refund method, and responsibility for return costs should be confirmed from the checkout terms. The final order total and promotion eligibility should be reviewed before payment, particularly where multi-buy or shipping-threshold offers apply. For material orders or potential disputes, the official customer-service channel and the merchant name shown by the payment processor should be retained with the order confirmation.

- The homepage advertises free shipping for purchases of R650 or more.
- Product navigation includes multiple “Take 2” offers with different item combinations and prices.
- The storefront provides both account-based and guest-checkout options and directs customers to delivery and return information.

Summary Verdict

The website is a legitimate, established, and trustworthy online retailer with strong convergence among its commercial content, historical provenance, corporate registration, clean external reputation, and benign observed behavior. No contradictory risk signals were identified, and normal interaction—including account login and standard purchases—is appropriate.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is protected by Cloudflare CDN/WAF infrastructure, with the observed address belonging to an edge server rather than a confirmed origin host. This arrangement reduces direct origin exposure and is a useful security mitigation, although infrastructure protection is not, by itself, proof of business legitimacy. Transport encryption was valid and used domain validation.

- The site was served from AS13335 (Cloudflare, Inc.) through the observed edge address 23.227.38.65 in Canada.
- The TLS certificate was issued by YE2 with DV validation and was valid until 28 October 2026.
- All observed addresses were classified as CDN edge infrastructure; no origin candidate was identified.

Closing Assessment

Prospective customers may use the storefront normally, while applying routine e-commerce precautions such as reviewing checkout terms, preserving transaction records, and using a payment method with appropriate dispute protections.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about clothingjunction.co.za at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
