- The operator behind the site could not be independently connected to a real-world brand or person.

Full analysis

Overview

CompaniesMarketCap.com is an established financial-market information site presenting public-company market-capitalization rankings, stock data, geographic and industry filters, ETF categories, financial definitions, and related disclosures. Its apparent model is informational publishing supported by advertising, analytics, and potentially premium features rather than direct solicitation of deposits or investment returns.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictions, phishing indicators, brand impersonation, or malicious reputation findings were observed. The homepage provides substantial market-data content and disclosures, while analysis found no credential-harvesting form, hidden sensitive form, or direct financial transaction request. The site's domain is long-established and registered through GoDaddy.com, LLC.

- Homepage: public-company rankings, stock information, filters, ETFs, definitions, and disclaimers are presented.
- Homepage interaction analysis: one suggestion/contact form was observed; no login form, password-external form, wallet-drainer behavior, or hidden form was detected.
- Domain registration: created 2020-02-12 and currently approximately 6.47 years old.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site presents financial information rather than regulated brokerage or investment services. No licensing claim or registration number is identified in the supplied site material, which is a disclosure point for verification if the intended use extends beyond informational research. This does not create an identity contradiction or indicate deceptive conduct. No matching third-party broker warning was identified.

- Homepage: financial-data rankings and explanatory disclosures are visible without a stated license claim.
- Site content: advertising and analytics consent mechanisms are disclosed.
- Transport security: TLS uses issuer WE1, DV validation, and is valid through 2026-09-13.
- Registrar: GoDaddy.com, LLC.

What to Verify Next

For any use involving regulated advice, execution, or financial intermediation, confirm the relevant entity and authorization directly with the applicable regulatory registry before relying on those services. Standard informational browsing, account login where offered, and ordinary site use are appropriate within the site's stated purpose.

- Homepage: the stated function is market-data research and ranking.
- Site disclosures: definitions, disclaimers, privacy, advertising, and analytics information are provided.
- Contact functionality: a suggestion/contact channel is available.

Summary Verdict

CompaniesMarketCap.com presents as a legitimate, established, and trustworthy informational website with a high-trust posture. Its content, behavior, reputation, and technical controls converge without observed contradiction.

Infrastructure Integrity

Cloudflare CDN/WAF protection provides a meaningful mitigating control, with observed traffic delivered through Cloudflare edge infrastructure rather than a directly exposed origin. This supports resilience and reduces direct origin exposure, while remaining a protective infrastructure signal rather than proof of legitimacy.

- Hosting: served from AS13335, Cloudflare, Inc., United States.
- Observed edge infrastructure: 104.26.4.188, 104.26.5.188, 172.67.74.203, and 2606:4700:20::681a:4bc.
- Origin posture: six observed addresses were CDN edges; zero likely origin addresses were identified.

Closing Assessment

Normal interaction, including account login and standard use, is appropriate, with regulatory confirmation required only if activities extend beyond the site's informational function.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about companiesmarketcap.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
