Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet, Kaspersky, Sophos flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

The website presents an informational housing service for veterans, describing the apartments at 17 Court Street in Boston, building amenities, on-site support, and the mission of New England Center and Home for Veterans; its apparent business model is nonprofit veteran housing and related supportive services rather than commercial online sales.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site's visible content is coherent with an informational housing service and does not display a login form, payment form, wallet connection, or overtly deceptive claims. However, this benign presentation is outweighed by a confirmed blacklist status and malicious detections from multiple external security providers, including ten malicious classifications and one suspicious classification. The observed behavior also included two suspicious inline scripts and a suspicious network interpretation. These are direct contradictions to the site's otherwise professional presentation, so the domain should not be treated as a trustworthy endpoint for sensitive interaction. The available evidence does not establish brand impersonation or conflicting legal identities, but the external malicious detections remain sufficient for a high-risk assessment.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage describes Court Street Veterans Housing, LLC, the apartments at 17 Court Street, veteran services, and an informational housing purpose.
- External reputation checks recorded 10 malicious detections, 1 suspicious detection, and a confirmed blacklist hit from two blacklist sources.
- Browser analysis recorded 2 suspicious inline scripts, 4 console errors, and a suspicious network interpretation; no hidden forms, password forms, wallet activity, or cloaking were detected.
- The domain was registered on 2016-08-12 and has an age of 10.02 years; archival coverage is recorded from 2018-08-06 through 2025-03-04, spanning 8 years tracked.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The homepage provides an organizational narrative and identifies a veteran-housing entity, but the real-world operator remains independently unverified. The available pages do not present a licensing authority or license number, and the disclosure state is therefore unclear; this is a verification gap rather than, by itself, evidence of fraud. The stated nonprofit housing purpose is consistent with the page content, but that consistency cannot overcome the external security contradictions or serve as proof of legal status, charitable registration, or authorization.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage states that New England Center and Home for Veterans was founded in 1989 and describes services for veterans facing homelessness and related challenges.
- The homepage identifies the property as the Apartments at 17 Court Street in Boston and presents Court Street Veterans Housing, LLC as the named housing entity.
- No licensing authority or license number is presented in the supplied legal or identity content.
- The domain registrar is Bluehost Inc.; the listed registrant is "SPY, CATHERINE."

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an institution should independently confirm that the stated property, organization, and contact channels correspond to the intended real-world nonprofit through an offline or independently sourced channel. Any donation, tenancy, application, or account-related request should be validated through an independently obtained telephone number or official institutional record rather than relying solely on the website. Where applicable, the organization's legal and charitable registration should also be confirmed with the relevant government registry.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage provides a Boston street address and telephone contact that can be checked independently.
- The homepage contains no sensitive submission form, so requests for credentials, payment details, or identity documents would require separate scrutiny.
- The stated housing and veteran-support purpose can be compared with independently sourced organizational and property records before engagement.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical risk for sensitive interactions. Although the website presents a plausible informational housing narrative, the external contradictions prevent the available evidence from supporting trust in the domain for credentials, financial activity, or other high-impact transactions. Identity verification remains incomplete.

Infrastructure Integrity

The website is served through Google infrastructure and protected by a CDN/WAF arrangement; the observed edge-only architecture limits direct visibility of the origin server. This provides a mitigating layer against some infrastructure exposure but does not resolve the domain's external reputation risk.

EVIDENCE

- Served from edge IP 35.212.38.108 on AS15169, Google LLC, US.
- The site's origin server IP was not observable; 1 edge IP and 0 likely origin candidates were identified.
- The transport certificate is valid, issued by YR1 with DV validation, and expires on 2026-09-24T21:38:26+00:00.

Closing Assessment

The site should be treated as read-only until the organization and contact channels have been independently confirmed; credentials, financial information, and other sensitive data should not be submitted absent that confirmation.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about courtstreetveteranshousing.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
