Full analysis

Overview

Curtin University's website is an institutional education portal presenting information on courses, admissions, scholarships, research, campuses, events, fundraising, and student services; its apparent purpose is to support prospective and current students, researchers, staff, and the wider university community.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictions were observed. The homepage presents a coherent university identity and substantive institutional content, while the available technical and reputation checks found no phishing, impersonation, malicious-content, or suspicious-content indicators. The historical record is also consistent with a long-running institutional web presence rather than a recently repurposed site.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies Curtin University and provides detailed study, admissions, research, campus, event, and student-support content.
- External reputation checks recorded zero malicious and zero suspicious findings, with no phishing or impersonation signal.
- Domain registration continuity dated to 1997; authoritative domain age 29.582477754962355 years.
- Web-archive coverage recorded 5000 snapshots from 1997-01-11 through 2022-11-08, spanning 26 years.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The available content is consistent with a university information and admissions website rather than a financial-services or investment operation. The site identifies Curtin University on-page, but the real-world operator connection has not been independently verified by the available evidence. The registration record names Education Services Australia Limited as registrar and Curtin University as owner; these records support context but do not, by themselves, establish operational authority. The supplied material does not provide a specific licensing or registration disclosure, which is a transparency item to confirm where a particular course, payment, donation, or other regulated activity requires one. A third-party broker-reputation lookup produced no match and should be treated only as contextual support.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage title is “Curtin University | Make tomorrow better,” with university and educational page classification.
- Registration record: registrar Education Services Australia Limited; owner Curtin University.
- Hosting telemetry: served from AS16509, Amazon.com, Inc. (AMAZON-02), US.
- TLS certificate issued by Amazon RSA 2048 M04 (DV), valid to 2027-01-15T23:59:59+00:00.

What to Verify Next

Before credential or payment interactions, independently confirm that the relevant institutional contact details and transaction pathway correspond to Curtin University through an official directory or offline channel. For any enrollment, donation, or service payment, review the applicable terms, refund or cancellation conditions, and available payment protections at the point of transaction. Where a specific activity is subject to external regulation, confirm the responsible institution or program against the relevant official register.

EVIDENCE

- The supplied page content describes an institutional information service with admissions, scholarships, fundraising, and student-support functions.
- No sensitive form or login form was detected on the assessed homepage.
- The available identity evidence supports an established institutional presentation but does not independently complete real-world operator verification.

Summary Verdict

Available evidence supports a high-trust, low-risk posture consistent with an established, apparently legitimate website. No scam, impersonation, phishing, or other contradictory signal was identified, although the operator’s real-world identity remains independently unverified.

Infrastructure Integrity

The website is protected by Amazon Web Services CDN/WAF infrastructure. The observed address was a CDN edge address, and no origin-server candidate was observable in the analysis; this protective architecture reduces direct exposure of the underlying service but is a mitigating control rather than proof of legitimacy.

EVIDENCE

- Infrastructure resolution identified one edge address, 52.64.39.142, with zero likely origin addresses.
- CDN/WAF vendor detected: AWS.
- The observed edge infrastructure was associated with the US hosting environment.

Closing Assessment

Ordinary use is proportionate to the assessed posture, subject to independent institutional, transaction-term, and payment-protection checks before sensitive interactions.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about curtin.edu.au at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
