Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

This Portuguese-language website presents “Embarque Já” as an online travel agency and corporate-travel service, offering flight tickets, travel packages, cruises, hotels, vehicle rental, transfers, travel-document assistance, and event logistics through quotation requests and consultant support.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site’s travel-agency presentation is commercially coherent and the captured homepage did not display obvious phishing forms, brand impersonation, or deceptive interaction mechanics. However, this positive page-level impression is outweighed by confirmed blacklist status and multiple external malicious detections, including a Tier-1 security detection. The available evidence therefore supports a critical sensitive-interaction risk for account, credential, payment, or other financially consequential activity. No conflicting legal-entity names were observed, and no separate identity contradiction was identified; the principal concern is the external threat-reputation evidence rather than the travel-business content itself.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage presents a standard travel-agency model with quotation and consultant-contact calls to action; no login form, hidden form, wallet connection, or suspicious script behavior was detected.
- External reputation telemetry recorded 9 malicious and 2 suspicious detections from 16 evaluated results, with a Tier-1 threat detection present.
- The domain was registered on 2023-06-21 and is approximately 3.17 years old.
- Archive records show first seen on 2012-02-22, last seen on 2025-07-11, 0 reported snapshots, and 14 years tracked.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The homepage identifies the business as “Embarque Já” and displays a phone number, email address, a Santo André physical address, CNPJ information, and Cadastur registration. These are useful on-page disclosures, but the supplied evidence does not establish independent verification of the claimed registration or a licensing authority and license number. The site’s identity connection is therefore plausible but not independently verified. A third-party broker-data check produced no match; this is contextual only and does not establish regulatory status. The confirmed blacklist signal remains a material reputational issue even though the business description itself is a conventional travel-services model.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage displays CNPJ and Cadastur references alongside a Santo André address and business contact details.
- The site describes services including air-ticket sales, packages, cruises, accommodation, vehicle rental, transfers, and corporate travel consultancy.
- Domain registration lists ENOM, INC. as registrar, with expiration on 2027-06-21.
- Transport encryption uses a DV certificate issued by YR2, valid through 2026-11-01T14:47:12+00:00.

What to Verify Next

Before any payment or submission of sensitive information, the claimed CNPJ and Cadastur details should be checked directly against the relevant Brazilian public registries, using independently obtained registry channels rather than links or contact details supplied only by the site. The physical business presence and authority to sell the proposed travel services should also be confirmed through an offline or independently sourced contact route. Any transaction should use a payment method with clear dispute and consumer-protection mechanisms, and booking confirmations should be independently validated with the underlying airline, hotel, cruise operator, or other service provider.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage supplies the identity and registration details needed for direct CNPJ and Cadastur verification.
- The homepage uses a contact form and chat widget rather than a credential-login workflow.
- The site links to Facebook, Instagram, and WhatsApp presence, which can be compared with independently sourced business records.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical and unsuitable for sensitive interaction without successful independent validation. The site appears to offer a conventional travel service, but that surface-level legitimacy is not sufficient to overcome the confirmed external reputation contradictions. Identity remains plausible rather than proven.

Infrastructure Integrity

The website resolves directly to a single likely origin rather than a CDN edge, with no CDN or WAF vendor identified. Hosting is attributed to Halver LTDA infrastructure, and the reported geographic registry mismatch is a contextual infrastructure inconsistency; infrastructure characteristics do not offset the external reputation findings.

EVIDENCE

- Hosted on AS274564 (Halver LTDA, BR), resolving to 66.253.112.200 in the United States.
- Infrastructure telemetry reports 1 unique IP, 0 edge IPs, and 1 likely origin IP.
- No CDN was detected; the infrastructure registry is ARIN.

Closing Assessment

Sensitive actions should be deferred until the business registration, operating authority, and transaction counterparties have been independently confirmed; if confirmation cannot be obtained, the service should not be used for payments or credential submission.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about embarqueja.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
