Full analysis

Overview

FpcGrowth is a broker-style online trading website presenting CFD access across forex, cryptocurrencies, shares, indices, ETFs, commodities, copy trading, automated trading, and investment plans, with the apparent business model of soliciting customer accounts and deposits for trading or managed-investment services.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No confirmed blacklist, phishing, brand-impersonation, or conflicting-legal-identity finding was observed. However, the site presents a materially elevated sensitive-interaction risk: its homepage promotes guaranteed or exceptionally high returns, encourages deposits before a service outcome is established, and combines login, registration, and deposit workflows with claims that lack corresponding verifiable evidence. Interactive testing also identified substantial content and network changes after interaction, including behavior classified as semantic cloaking; this is a significant integrity concern even though it does not establish impersonation by itself. One external security classification marked the domain as malicious, but the available evidence does not establish that classification as a confirmed blacklist determination. A separate abuse report concerns shared hosting infrastructure, carries zero confidence, and is expressly discounted because it applies to the provider's shared IP rather than being attributed to this website.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage presents guaranteed-return and aggressive high-yield investment messaging alongside account and deposit prompts.
- The homepage contains login and signup forms, including a sensitive form directed to an untrusted destination.
- Interactive behavior recorded 3 successful runs, 48 external XHR requests, 15 non-whitelisted XHR requests, 6 non-whitelisted POST requests, and a maximum post-interaction DOM difference of 5351.
- The domain was registered on 2024-04-12 and is 2.47 years old; its archive contains 9 snapshots spanning 2024–2025 across 2 tracked years.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The website identifies itself as a CFD and investment platform and provides a “Legal & Regulation” navigation area, but the supplied page evidence does not establish a verifiable regulator, license number, or legal entity authorization for the financial services advertised. This is a material regulatory-verification gap rather than proof of a scam. The operator’s real-world identity is only likely, not independently verified, and the site’s claims about trading services and investment returns should therefore not be treated as evidence of authorization. The available third-party broker context contains no name match, while the hosting-related abuse report is a soft, provider-level signal rather than a regulatory finding.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage and navigation identify CFD trading, investment plans, copy trading, automated trading, and a “Legal & Regulation” section, but no verified license authority or license number is supplied in the available content.
- The site’s stated business model involves soliciting deposits for platform access, trading services, managed plans, and high-return investment products.
- The site’s transport certificate is DV-validated and was issued by YR2, with validity through 2026-11-14T13:08:03+00:00.
- Hosting is on AS19437, operated by SS-ASH - SECURED SERVERS LLC, US.

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an independent check should confirm the operating company and its authorization directly through the relevant financial-services regulator’s registry, using details obtained independently of the website. The legal, terms, withdrawal, fee, and risk-disclosure materials should be reviewed for a consistent legal entity, governing jurisdiction, complaint route, custody arrangements, and conditions for returning funds. Contact channels should be confirmed through an independent offline or registry-based route, and any proposed payment destination should be validated as belonging to the authorized entity. Until those checks are complete, activity should remain limited to passive review.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage is the source of the trading, investment-plan, account, and deposit claims requiring independent validation.
- The site's "Legal & Regulation," "About Us," "FAQ," and "Contact" areas are the relevant pages for checking entity, authorization, complaint, and contact details.
- The login and signup workflows are the relevant interaction points for confirming whether credentials or payment information would be requested.

Summary Verdict

The website has a critical sensitive-interaction risk posture. Its investment solicitation claims, unexplained return expectations, deposit-first mechanics, unverified financial-services status, and interaction behavior outweigh the limited identity and technical signals supporting ordinary web presence. The available evidence does not support treating the site as a trusted destination for account, credential, or financial activity.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site resolves directly to infrastructure operated by SS-ASH - SECURED SERVERS LLC in the United States, with no trusted CDN or WAF identified and a likely origin address exposed. This provides limited infrastructure-level mitigation and should not be interpreted as evidence of legitimacy.

EVIDENCE

- The hosting provider is SS-ASH - SECURED SERVERS LLC, US, on AS19437.
- The resolved infrastructure has 1 unique IP, 0 edge IPs, and 1 likely origin IP.
- The TLS certificate uses DV validation, was issued by YR2, and expires on 2026-11-14T13:08:03+00:00.

Closing Assessment

The proportionate course is to restrict activity to passive viewing and withhold credentials, account creation, deposits, and other financial actions until independent regulatory, entity, payment, and withdrawal checks have been completed.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about fpcgrowthtrade.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
