Full analysis

Overview

Haleema Limited is a UK-based travel agency presenting Umrah and Hajj packages, visa assistance, flights, hotel accommodation, transport, prices, and booking enquiries for prospective pilgrims, with revenue apparently derived from package bookings and related service fees.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictions were observed. The site presents a coherent travel-agency business model, identifies itself as Haleema Limited, provides package details and customer-contact mechanisms, and shows no indicators of phishing, brand impersonation, malicious behavior, or deceptive red flags. Available external reputation checks found no malicious or suspicious detections in the evaluated results, and the site was not matched in the available broker-intelligence dataset. This supports an apparently legitimate, established-site assessment, although the real-world operator identity remains independently unverified.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage presents Umrah and Hajj travel packages, visa assistance, flights, hotels, transport, prices, and booking enquiries.
- The site's historical record begins on 2011-07-10 and ends on 2025-12-25, representing 15 years tracked; the domain is recorded as registered in 2011 and approximately 15.11 years old.
- The homepage behavior assessment found no login form, hidden form, cloaking, suspicious inline script, wallet activity, clipboard hijacking, or password-external form.
- External reputation results recorded zero malicious detections, zero suspicious detections, zero abuse reports, and no confirmed malicious-site or phishing indication.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site provides meaningful commercial contact information, including a Luton office address, telephone numbers, email contact points, and an enquiry form. It describes itself as an “Approved Umrah Agents UK” agency, but the supplied page evidence does not identify a licensing authority or registration number, so that claim should be treated as an on-site representation rather than independently verified regulatory status. This is a verification and disclosure matter, not evidence of impersonation or fraud. The available evidence is otherwise consistent with a functioning, professionally presented small travel agency.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies “Haleema Limited” and gives the office address as 171B Dunstable Road, Luton, LU1 1BT, UK.
- The booking form requests travel date, duration, traveller numbers, hotel preference, passenger name, email address, and contact number.
- The homepage title states “Approved Umrah Agents UK | Hajj & Umrah Agency - Haleema Ltd,” while no licensing authority or licence number is supplied in the analysed content.
- The site is served on AS13335 by CLOUDFLARENET - Cloudflare, Inc., US; its TLS certificate is issued by WE1 at DV validation level and is valid to 2026-11-06.

What to Verify Next

Before credential or payment interactions, an independent check should confirm the legal trading identity behind Haleema Limited, validate any applicable travel or pilgrimage-sector authorisation with the relevant UK authority or industry registry, and confirm the stated office and contact channels through an independently sourced route. Package inclusions, cancellation and refund terms, visa responsibilities, supplier arrangements, and payment-protection provisions should also be reviewed before committing funds.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage provides the trading name, physical office address, telephone contact, and booking-enquiry process for independent comparison.
- The package listings state specific durations, hotel categories, departure information, and prices, providing concrete terms to reconcile with any quotation or contract.
- The booking form states that submission may result in travel updates, product information, promotional offers, and discount communications, which should be considered when reviewing consent and privacy terms.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is high trust and low risk, with converging evidence consistent with an established, apparently legitimate website and no observed scam or impersonation contradictions. The classification is strong at the website-risk level, while the operator’s real-world identity is not independently verified.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is protected by Cloudflare’s CDN/WAF, and all observed addresses were CDN edge infrastructure rather than an exposed origin. This reduces direct origin exposure and is a mitigating technical control, but it is not proof of the operator’s legitimacy.

EVIDENCE

- The site resolved through AS13335, Cloudflare, Inc., with four observed edge addresses and zero likely origin candidates.
- The transport certificate was issued by WE1, uses DV validation, and expires on 2026-11-06.
- The hosting infrastructure is identified in the United States and registered through ARIN.

Closing Assessment

Ordinary browsing and enquiry activity is proportionate to the assessment; before submitting credentials or payment details, prospective customers should complete independent merchant-identity, contract, cancellation, and payment-protection checks.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about haleema.co.uk at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
