Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet, Kaspersky, Sophos flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

This website is a consumer ecommerce landing page for personalized identification labels, presenting labels for children and seniors, online design and ordering, secure payment, and same-day shipping as its apparent business model.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

A confirmed blacklist signal creates a critical security concern despite the site's otherwise ordinary retail presentation. Multiple established security providers, including Fortinet, Kaspersky, and Sophos, identified malicious characteristics associated with the domain. The supplied page analysis found no login form, hidden sensitive form, or apparent brand impersonation, so the principal concern is external malicious-reputation evidence rather than a demonstrated impersonation mechanism on the captured page. The domain's long registration continuity and substantial archival record are mitigating provenance signals, but they do not override the current blacklist status. No identity contradiction was identified in the supplied page analysis.

EVIDENCE

- The external reputation assessment recorded 12 malicious detections, with Fortinet, Kaspersky, and Sophos among the flagged providers; the domain was also marked as externally blacklisted.
- Registration records show the domain was created on 2008-01-25 and is approximately 18.58 years old.
- The web archive contains 776 snapshots spanning 2008-02-07 through 2026-02-22, with 19 years tracked.
- The homepage capture contained no login form, hidden form, or password-submission mechanism.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The available page content describes a retail label business rather than a regulated financial service, but the real-world operator remains unverified. The homepage states that “Labels at your name inc” merged with “Label My Stuff inc.”; this is an on-site commercial claim and not independent confirmation of either entity. No license or registration number is presented in the supplied content, so the legal and merchant disclosure position requires independent confirmation. A separate broker-reputation dataset returned no match; that is contextual only and does not establish licensing, corporate status, or legitimacy.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage contains the merger statement referencing “Labels at your name inc” and “Label My Stuff inc.”
- The supplied page content contains no claimed license authority or license number.
- The site’s hosting record identifies AS16276 operated by OVH - OVH SAS, FR.
- The transport certificate is DV, issued by YR2, and valid through 2026-11-03.

What to Verify Next

An independent corporate-registry search should confirm the legal entity responsible for accepting orders and payments, including whether the stated merger relationships are current. Before any transaction, the merchant’s return, delivery, refund, and payment-dispute arrangements should be confirmed through independently sourced business information rather than relying solely on the website. Official support and contact channels should also be confirmed through an independent route.

EVIDENCE

- Identity verification is currently unverified, making independent confirmation of the operating entity material.
- The homepage presents an online ordering and payment process but does not independently establish the responsible merchant entity.
- The available regulatory context does not identify a licensing authority or verified registration record.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical, with the site unsuitable for sensitive interaction on the evidence available. Its conventional ecommerce appearance and established historical presence do not overcome the convergent external threat and blacklist findings.

Infrastructure Integrity

The website is protected by a CDN/WAF layer, and the observed address, 198.27.95.38, is an edge address associated with OVH - OVH SAS on AS16276; no origin candidate was observable. This infrastructure provides some exposure mitigation, but protective hosting cannot establish legitimacy or offset the external reputation risk.

Closing Assessment

Pending independent resolution of the reputation and merchant-identity concerns, interaction should remain limited to passive viewing, with no login, credential submission, payment, or other financial action.

Written analysis generated 2026-08-20 by the TrustSniffer Analysis Engine from the evidence in this report.

What the analysis found

2 findings contributed to this verdict, raised by registration and ownership, analysis engine, external reputation.

- 01

Governance Risk

 - Registration details are held behind a privacy service, so no operator is named publicly. This is common and legal, and it also means there is nobody to check.
Registration and ownership rule:KF_WHOIS_PRIVATE
 - The registration record withholds contact details for the operator.
Registration and ownership rule:KF_WHOIS_HIDDEN
- 02

Sensitive Interaction Risk

 - The analysis matched a pattern TrustSniffer treats as a direct threat to a visitor.
Analysis engine signal:direct_threat
 - An external threat feed lists this domain: either Google Safe Browsing marked it malicious, or a significant number of malware engines flagged it.
External reputation rule:EXT_BLACKLIST_CRITICAL

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about labelsatyourname.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
