Full analysis

Overview

This website is the official-facing French Assurance retraite public-service portal, presenting retirement information, eligibility and career guidance, payment schedules, news, privacy information, and online administrative procedures intended to support social-security and retirement services rather than commercial sales or investment activity.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictions were observed across the site's institutional content, technical behavior, and external reputation signals. The homepage identifies the service as “L'Assurance retraite – La retraite de la Sécurité sociale,” and the content focuses on retirement administration without investment offers, cryptocurrency activity, credential harvesting, or brand-impersonation indicators. A behavioral review recorded one hidden form and console errors, but no password was submitted to an external destination, no external network posting was observed, and the page-level assessment identified no red flags; these observations therefore do not establish a scam or impersonation pattern. The operator's real-world identity remains not independently verified, so the legitimacy assessment is evidence-consistent rather than conclusive.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage presents retirement guidance, online procedures, payment information, career records, and “Mon espace personnel,” with no detected login form or external sensitive-form destination.
- Behavioral testing recorded one hidden form across two successful runs, zero external XHR or POST activity, zero wallet activity, and zero clipboard-hijack activity.
- The domain was registered in 2008 and is approximately 18.41 years old.
- The archive contains 4 snapshots spanning 2010–2023, covering 14 tracked years; the available history shows no suspicious repurposing or semantic drift.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site presents an institutional public-service model operated for retirement and social-security administration, not a commercial financial or investment business. Its content includes cookie and privacy information and an accessible “Nous contacter” route, while no financial-services license claim or registration number is presented; that is a transparency item for administrative confirmation, not evidence of fraud. External reputation checks were clean, and links to YouTube, Twitter, and LinkedIn provide supporting public-presence context. The available evidence is consistent with an established, apparently legitimate service, but it does not independently prove the real-world operator identity.

EVIDENCE

- The page title is “L’Assurance retraite – La retraite de la Sécurité sociale,” and the page is categorized as an informational government/public-service site.
- The site is hosted on AS5410, BOUYGTEL-ISP – Bouygues Telecom SA, France.
- The transport certificate is EV-validated, issued by Sectigo Qualified Website Authentication CA R39 for CAISSE NATIONALE D’ASSURANCE VIEILLESSE, and valid through 2026-12-23.
- The site links to social profiles on youtube.com, twitter.com, and linkedin.com.

What to Verify Next

Before credential submission, an organization should independently confirm that the responsible public body and the relevant service address correspond with an official French government directory or an independently obtained administrative document. Any account or case-management interaction should also be initiated from a verified official channel, with the displayed destination and requested information checked before submission; where a payment is ever requested, standard payment-protection and dispute processes should be confirmed.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage provides the navigation labels “Nous contacter” and “Mon espace personnel,” creating identifiable routes for independent channel comparison.
- The site’s stated functions are retirement procedures, claims administration, payment information, and social-security guidance rather than commercial transactions.
- The page includes cookie and privacy information for review before account-related activity.

Summary Verdict

Available evidence is consistent with an established, apparently legitimate, low-risk public-service website. No scam, phishing, impersonation, or conflicting-identity indicators were observed, although the operator identity is not independently verified by the available evidence. The overall trust posture supports ordinary use within the site’s stated administrative purpose.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site resolves to two likely origin addresses in France and is hosted directly through BOUYGUES-ISP – Bouygues Telecom SA on AS5410; no CDN or WAF was identified. This provides clear hosting attribution but offers less edge-layer shielding than a major CDN deployment, so infrastructure should be treated as contextual mitigation rather than proof of legitimacy.

Closing Assessment

For credential or payment interactions, ordinary independent confirmation of the official service channel, responsible entity, and applicable user protections should be completed before proceeding.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about lassuranceretraite.fr at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
