Full analysis

Overview

This website presents itself as an informational higher-education institution in Beijing, offering admissions information, department and programme listings, institutional news, campus details, and contact information. Its apparent purpose is to support prospective students and provide general information about the college rather than to solicit direct commercial transactions.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No blacklist, phishing, malicious-content, or brand-impersonation contradiction was observed. The homepage metadata contains Chinese betting-related wording that is inconsistent with the visible college content; this is a content-integrity anomaly, but the supplied assessment does not attribute it to impersonation or malicious behavior. The visible page instead contains institutional admissions material, ministry-related claims, programme information, and campus contact details, with no login form, payment solicitation, wallet connection, or sensitive-data form. Available evidence is therefore consistent with an established, apparently legitimate informational website, while the real-world operator remains independently unverified.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage contains admissions notices, academic departments, programme descriptions, institutional news, and campus contact details.
- The homepage's visible metadata contains betting-related Chinese wording despite the institutional subject matter.
- External checks recorded 0 malicious detections, 0 suspicious detections, and 0 abuse reports; reputation coverage was partial.
- The domain was registered in 2017 and is approximately 8.67 years old; the archive record contains 35 snapshots spanning 2010–2025, covering 16 years.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site presents itself as a public college and states affiliations or relationships involving China's Ministry of Civil Affairs, the Ministry of Education, and education-sector bodies. Those claims support an apparent institutional purpose but do not independently establish the legal identity of the operator. No financial or commercial licence is claimed in the supplied content, and no licence number or regulator registration is presented; for an educational information site this is a disclosure and verification matter rather than evidence of a scam. The site's page-level content is low-risk and informational, although its limited metadata and the unexplained homepage wording reduce clarity about the site's current identity. The registration privacy service is an administrative detail, not an identity contradiction.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage states that the institution is a public college directly associated with the Ministry of Civil Affairs and references Ministry of Education-related educational resources.
- The homepage provides a Beijing-area campus address, telephone numbers, admissions information, and an institutional-domain reference.
- Registration was through NameSilo, LLC; creation date 2017-12-22 and expiry date 2026-12-22.
- The site is hosted by PEG-LA - PEG TECH INC, US, on AS398823; its TLS certificate is DV, issued by YR2, and valid to 2026-10-27.

What to Verify Next

Before credential or payment interactions, independently confirm that the college name, campus address, admissions information, and published telephone numbers correspond to an institution listed by the relevant education or civil-affairs authorities. Any tuition or other payment should be made only through an independently confirmed institutional channel and with ordinary payment-protection and refund or cancellation terms understood. The official contact channels should also be confirmed through an independent source rather than relying solely on the webpage.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage links to education and civil-affairs ministry resources that can support independent institutional verification.
- The homepage supplies multiple telephone numbers and a campus postal address suitable for cross-checking against authoritative sources.
- The sampled page showed no payment form or direct financial solicitation, so any later payment request should be assessed separately from the informational content reviewed here.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is high trust and low risk, and the available evidence is consistent with an established, apparently legitimate educational website. This conclusion reflects convergence across substantive institutional content, stable technical operation, long-running domain and archival presence, valid transport encryption, and the absence of observed contradiction signals; it does not constitute proof of the real-world operator's identity.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site resolves directly through PEG-LA - PEG TECH INC infrastructure, with no CDN or WAF edge identified and no separate origin-obfuscation layer observed. Direct hosting is a neutral infrastructure characteristic rather than evidence of wrongdoing; the valid TLS deployment provides transport protection for ordinary browsing.

EVIDENCE

- Infrastructure resolution identified 1 unique IP and 0 CDN edge IPs.
- No CDN vendor was detected.
- The resolved hosting country was the US, with ARIN recorded as the registry.

Closing Assessment

Normal informational browsing is proportionate to the evidence; before submitting credentials or making payments, ordinary independent checks of institutional identity, transaction terms, and payment protections should be completed.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about lingzhi-bj.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
