Full analysis

Overview

LuatVietnam is a Vietnamese legal-information portal presenting searchable legal texts, legal news and analysis, document utilities, consulting support, and subscription-based services. Its apparent business model combines free informational content with paid access to document resources, subscription packages, advisory services, an AI legal assistant, and advertising.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictions were observed. The site's content, business model, and long-running historical continuity are consistent with an established informational legal service, while external reputation checks found no malicious, suspicious, phishing, or impersonation indicators. The homepage includes a conventional login and search experience; behavioral testing observed no hidden forms, wallet activity, clipboard manipulation, or cloaking. Minor dynamic-page and external-network activity did not produce a confirmed abuse pattern or alter the overall assessment.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies LuatVietnam as a Vietnamese legal-text database and presents searchable statutes, legal news, utilities, subscription services, and consulting functions.
- Registration continuity indicates 2006 (~19.84 years old); historical records show 561 archive snapshots spanning 2006–2026, covering 21 years.
- Homepage behavioral testing found no hidden forms, password submissions to external forms, wallet-provider activity, clipboard writes, or cloaking.

Regulatory Verification Notes

LuatVietnam presents itself as an informational legal-resource provider rather than a regulated financial or investment service. The supplied site content does not make a specific licensing claim or provide a license number, so any legal-advisory, consulting, paid-support, or AI-assistance service should be distinguished from formally licensed legal representation where relevant. This is a verification and disclosure consideration, not evidence of a scam. The available evidence remains consistent with an established site, but the real-world operator identity is not independently verified; the site's apparent legitimacy should therefore not be treated as proof of a particular legal entity.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage offers Vietnamese and English legal documents, legal analysis, document access, consulting support, an AI legal assistant, and paid service packages.
- The business-model description identifies subscription tiers, paid downloads, consultancy or telephone support, and advertising; no license authority or license number is supplied in the assessed content.
- The site has an established page-authority profile and appears within the globally tracked web population, supporting the assessment of an established informational presence.

What to Verify Next

Before credential or payment interactions, independently confirm the operating company named on the applicable legal or commercial pages, review subscription cancellation and refund terms, and confirm that any requested legal advice is provided by an appropriately qualified or authorized professional. Payment should use a method offering transaction dispute and consumer-protection mechanisms. Official support channels should also be confirmed through an independently sourced route rather than relying solely on contact details presented within the site.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage provides login and registration functions, making account-control and credential-handling terms relevant to the proposed use.
- Paid packages, document access, consulting support, and telephone assistance create distinct service, billing, and refund questions for independent confirmation.
- The site offers legal analysis and AI-assisted legal functionality, requiring confirmation of the status and limits of any advice relied upon for material decisions.

Summary Verdict

The available evidence is consistent with an established, apparently legitimate, low-risk legal-information website. No scam, phishing, impersonation, or other identity contradiction was observed, although the operator's real-world identity remains independently unverified. The overall trust posture supports ordinary informational use while preserving normal commercial and identity checks for account or payment activity.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is served through Cloudflare's CDN and WAF, which provides a meaningful layer of traffic filtering and reduces direct exposure of the underlying service; this protective infrastructure is a mitigating control rather than proof of legitimacy. Observed addresses were CDN edge addresses, and the origin server was not exposed in the observed resolution.

EVIDENCE

- Served from AS13335 (CLOUDFLARENET - Cloudflare, Inc., US); observed edge address 104.18.21.193.
- Protected by Cloudflare CDN/WAF; 4 observed IP addresses were CDN edges and 0 origin candidates were identified.
- TLS certificate issued by WE1, validation level DV, valid to 2026-10-23 22:27:18 UTC.

Closing Assessment

The site is suitable for ordinary informational engagement, with independent confirmation of merchant identity, service terms, and payment protections completed before credentials or paid services are used.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about luatvietnam.vn at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
