Full analysis

Overview

Metaltintas is a Brazilian retail e-commerce website for paints and related supplies, presenting product categories, partner brands, local delivery services, store contact details, and customer or project content for direct sales and ordering inquiries.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictions were observed. The site presents a consistent local-retail purpose, with no detected phishing, impersonation, credential-harvesting, hidden-form, wallet-connection, or malicious-behaviour indicators. The available reputation evidence is favourable, although external coverage is not complete; this supports an apparently legitimate, low-risk assessment rather than independently proving the operator's real-world identity.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage and contact functionality present a paint-retail business with a physical address, telephone contact, and a standard contact form; no login or password-collection form was detected.
- Behavioural testing recorded no cloaking, hidden forms, suspicious inline scripts, clipboard activity, wallet-drainer activity, or external password submissions.
- The domain was registered in 1999 (~26.74 years old).
- The site has 212 archive snapshots spanning 2001–2026 (26 years tracked), with no suspicious repurposing or semantic category shift identified.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The /sobre, /contato, and privacy-policy pages provide a coherent commercial presentation, but the available material does not independently verify the legal entity operating the website. No regulatory licence, registration number, or regulated-service claim is presented; for a local paint retailer this is primarily a disclosure and merchant-verification matter, not evidence of wrongdoing. The broader signals remain consistent with an established site, while the absence of independent operator verification means that merchant identity, ordering terms, and payment arrangements should be confirmed before financial interaction.

EVIDENCE

- The site's identity and contact pages identify Metaltintas and provide business contact and location information, while independent operator verification remains incomplete.
- The site is hosted on AS15830 through Equinix - Equinix (EMEA) Acquisition Enterprises B.V., NL.
- Its TLS certificate is issued by YR2, uses DV validation, and is valid to 2026-11-03T16:41:41+00:00.
- No matching broker-reputation record was identified in the available third-party context.

What to Verify Next

Before credential or payment interactions, an independent merchant-identity check should confirm that the business details on the site correspond to the intended supplier. The relevant Brazilian commercial or consumer-protection records, applicable to the transaction and business activity, should be checked where required. The site's ordering, delivery, returns, refund, and payment-protection terms should also be reviewed, with contact channels confirmed through an independently obtained route rather than relying solely on the website.

EVIDENCE

- The /contato page is the appropriate place to reconcile the merchant's stated contact and location details with an independent source.
- The product and ordering paths should be checked for clearly stated delivery, refund, and return conditions before a transaction.
- The privacy-policy and contact pages provide the relevant starting points for confirming how customer information and enquiries are handled.

Summary Verdict

The available evidence supports a high-trust, low-risk posture for a local retail website, with no observed scam or impersonation contradiction. The site appears established and legitimate on the evidence available, but its real-world operator identity is not independently verified.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site resolves to one likely origin IP, with no CDN edge detected in the observed infrastructure. Its hosting environment is Equinix infrastructure in Brazil; this is a normal technical arrangement and provides some operational context, but hosting infrastructure alone is not proof of legitimacy.

Closing Assessment

Ordinary browsing and standard retail use are proportionate to the assessed posture; before submitting credentials or making a payment, the prospective customer should complete the independent merchant, terms, and payment-protection checks described above.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about metaltintas.com.br at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
