Full analysis

Overview

Nutraneeds is a direct-to-consumer ecommerce storefront for peptide-based dietary supplements, presenting product information, science-oriented health claims, shopping functionality, checkout, account access, and email-subscription features for retail customers.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site presents as a conventional online store and no brand impersonation or conflicting legal-entity identity was observed. However, external reputation checks recorded malicious detections and a confirmed blacklist hit, creating a material contradiction that outweighs the site's otherwise ordinary storefront presentation. Interactive testing also identified repeated hidden forms, substantial post-interaction DOM changes, and non-whitelisted external traffic; these are meaningful sensitive-interaction concerns, although no wallet-drainer, clipboard-hijacking, password-exfiltration form, or cloaking behavior was detected. Abuse reports associated with the observed IP are expressly attributed to shared CDN infrastructure and are therefore not treated as site-specific evidence. Evidence:

- External reputation checks recorded 2 malicious detections and a confirmed blacklist hit for the domain.

- The storefront's interactive behavior recorded hidden forms in 2 of 2 runs and a maximum post-interaction DOM difference of 873.
- The observed infrastructure IP, 23.227.38.65, had 153 abuse reports, but the attribution was to shared Shopify CDN infrastructure with a confidence score of 0 and whitelist status.
- Domain registration continuity shows registration on 2007-01-19, with an age of 19.59 years; archival records contain 37 snapshots spanning 2001–2025, across 25 years tracked.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The visible business model is retail sale of dietary supplements rather than a disclosed regulated financial service. The homepage states “Based on Science. Developed by a Scientist,” identifies the products as made in the USA at a cGMP, FDA-registered facility in California, and the legal materials include a 30-day returns provision and an FDA-related disclaimer. Those statements are on-site representations, not independent confirmation of the operating entity, facility status, product compliance, or applicable authorization. No license or registration number is disclosed in the supplied site content, leaving a material verification gap for a purchaser assessing the seller and its health-related claims. The domain is registered through Bluehost Inc., while registrant details use privacy protection; this is an administrative limitation rather than proof of wrongdoing. Evidence:

- The homepage identifies the “Nutraneeds” brand, peptide-based product range, scientist-led formulation claim, and California manufacturing statement.
- The returns and legal pages provide a 30-day returns policy and FDA-related disclaimer.
- The domain registrar is Bluehost Inc.; the recorded registrant is PERFECT PRIVACY, LLC.
- The site's hosting telemetry identifies AS13335, CLOUDFLARENET – Cloudflare, Inc., US; its TLS certificate is issued by YE1 at DV validation level and is valid to 2026-11-07.

What to Verify Next

Before any purchase or account interaction, an independent party should confirm the legal seller's name, business address, facility and product claims through authoritative public records rather than relying solely on the website's statements. The applicable consumer-protection, supplement, and manufacturing requirements should be identified for the purchaser's jurisdiction, and payment should be limited to a method offering meaningful dispute and chargeback protections. Login, credential submission, and payment should remain deferred until the seller and its official support channels have been independently corroborated. Evidence:

- The homepage supplies brand, product, scientist, and manufacturing assertions but does not independently document the responsible legal entity.
- The legal materials describe returns and FDA-related conditions but do not provide a license or registration number.
- The site exposes account-login and checkout functionality, making identity and payment-channel verification relevant before sensitive interaction.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is low trust, with an elevated risk of sensitive interaction. The site's professional ecommerce presentation is insufficient to overcome the confirmed external contradictions, and the real-world operator remains unverified. Public browsing may provide limited informational value, but the evidence does not support treating the website as suitable for credentials, account access, or financial transactions.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is protected by Cloudflare's CDN/WAF, and all observed addresses are CDN edge infrastructure; the origin server was not observable in this analysis. This reduces direct exposure of the underlying host and provides a mitigating control, but it does not establish the legitimacy of the website or neutralize the external risk indicators.

Closing Assessment

Prospective users should defer login, credential submission, and payment activity until independent seller, regulatory, and payment-protection checks have been completed.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about nutraneeds.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
