Full analysis

Security Alert

Sophos flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

A French-language travel-agency website branded "CEDIV TRAVEL" presents destination guides, holiday packages, travel circuits, cruises, hotels, and themed stays, with appointment and quotation-request forms intended to support travel bookings and agency consultations.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

Confirmed external threat intelligence creates a critical sensitive-interaction risk despite the site's professionally presented travel content and the absence of obvious phishing forms or page-level red flags. The domain is blacklisted by the reported sources, including detections associated with Sophos; this is a substantive contradiction that outweighs the site's benign-looking booking model. The site's behavioral capture also recorded a substantial change in page content after interaction, requiring caution around dynamic content. No conflicting legal-entity names or direct brand-impersonation indicators were observed, but the real-world operator remains unverified. No suspicious contact-email anomaly was identified.

EVIDENCE

- The external reputation assessment recorded 7 malicious detections and a Tier-1 threat detection associated with Sophos; the domain was also identified as blacklisted.
- The homepage interaction telemetry recorded a maximum DOM difference of 8,487 elements after interaction, while no hidden forms, password forms, wallet activity, or clipboard hijacking were detected.
- Domain registration evidence records creation on 2020-01-09, making the domain approximately 6.62 years old at collection.
- Archive records span 2018-08-09 through 2025-04-25, covering 8 years of tracked history without a detected repurposing event.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The website presents itself as “CEDIV TRAVEL” and refers to “Une agence du réseau,” but the available material does not independently establish the operator behind those claims. The reviewed content does not state a license authority or license number, and the disclosure state for governance and ownership is unclear. Because the business accepts appointment and quotation requests connected with travel purchases, the absence of clearly identified regulatory or corporate disclosures is a material verification gap, separate from the confirmed external reputation risk.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies the service as “CEDIV TRAVEL” and describes personalized travel advice and online appointment booking.
- The site provides appointment-request and quotation/contact forms, but no license authority or license number is disclosed in the reviewed content.
- The domain is registered through OVH; the site is served on AS8560 by IONOS-AS — IONOS SE, DE.
- Transport encryption uses a DV certificate issued by YE1, valid until 2026-10-11T14:24:01+00:00.

What to Verify Next

Before any account, payment, booking, or personal-data interaction, an institution should independently confirm that the domain is the official web address of the claimed travel agency through an offline or independently sourced channel. The relevant corporate identity, agency authorization, supplier relationships, cancellation terms, refund process, and payment recipient should be checked against authoritative records and independently obtained documentation. Any transaction should use payment protections that permit dispute or recovery, and credentials should not be reused on this site.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage supplies the claimed trading name, destination catalogue, package offers, and a telephone contact channel for independent comparison.
- The booking workflow is based on appointment and quotation requests rather than a visible login or password-submission form.
- The site's reviewed page content does not provide a license number or licensing authority, making independent regulatory confirmation necessary before purchase.
- The external assessment records a confirmed blacklist condition, requiring independent validation of the domain before sensitive engagement.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical risk for sensitive interaction. The website's travel-agency presentation is coherent, but it does not overcome the confirmed external threat detections, blacklisting, and unresolved operator verification. Routine browsing may be possible, but the available evidence does not support treating the site as trustworthy for credentials, payments, or other sensitive activity.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is protected by a CDN/WAF arrangement, and the observed address was an edge address rather than an independently observable origin. This reduces direct exposure of the origin infrastructure but is only a mitigating technical control and does not establish legitimacy.

EVIDENCE

- The observed edge IP was 212.227.27.237 on AS8560; the hosting provider is IONOS-AS — IONOS SE, DE.
- The infrastructure records identify 1 observed IP, 1 CDN edge IP, and 0 likely origin IP candidates.
- The site's TLS certificate is DV-validated, issued by YE1, and expires on 2026-10-11T14:24:01+00:00.

Closing Assessment

Sensitive interaction should be suspended until the domain, operator identity, regulatory standing, and payment arrangements have been independently authenticated through trusted channels.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about odyssee-voyages.fr at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
