Full analysis

Overview

The website is an established Portuguese-language evangelical Christian reference portal that publishes Bible explanations, studies, quizzes, and categorized articles, supported by advertising and an optional donation mechanism.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No identity contradictions, phishing behavior, brand impersonation, or other deceptive mechanics were observed. The site's long-established registration, substantial historical record, clean external reputation, and benign interaction surface converge strongly in support of legitimacy. Its advertising-related network activity is consistent with the disclosed publishing model rather than credential theft or financial abuse.

- The homepage contains one search form, with no login form, hidden form, sensitive-data request, untrusted form destination, or cryptocurrency-wallet interaction.
- External reputation checks recorded 0 malicious and 0 suspicious detections, no malicious safe-browsing classification, no abuse reports, and no matching threat signatures.
- The domain-registration record identifies Adriano Guimaraes Frazao and shows registration on 16 September 2002, making the domain approximately 23.9 years old; registration runs to 16 September 2028.
- Historical records contain 216 archive snapshots spanning 13 June 2009 to 29 June 2026, covering 18 tracked years, with no detected suspicious repurposing or semantic drift.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site presents itself as an informational religious publisher within the 7Graus/Bíbliaon publishing network and provides publisher attribution together with contact, about, and privacy links. It does not offer a regulated financial product, brokerage service, or investment facility, so the absence of a financial licence claim is appropriate to its stated activity and is not evidence of misconduct. The principal compliance consideration is privacy governance: the advertising-consent framework supports personalized advertising, cross-site profile sharing, precise-geolocation consent, and a large set of processing partners.

- The homepage identifies the service as a Bible question-and-answer resource grounded in evangelical Christian faith and presents a clear editorial purpose.

- The site's consent interface requests choices concerning personalized advertising, cross-site profiling, precise geolocation, and numerous data-processing partners.
- The hosting environment is served from AS16276 by OVH SAS in Canada.
- The site's transport encryption uses a valid domain-validated certificate issued by YE1, valid until 26 September 2026.

What to Verify Next

An enterprise considering advertising, donations, content syndication, or another formal relationship should confirm the contracting publisher through an independently obtained corporate record and reconcile it with the site's published legal documents. Before making a donation, the payment destination and recipient name should be checked against the official donation flow. Privacy-conscious users should review consent selections and disable optional profiling or geolocation processing where those uses are unnecessary.

- The site provides an optional donation entry point, creating a limited payment-recipient verification requirement.
- The observed business model depends on advertising, audience measurement, and consent-based data processing.
- Publisher attribution and legal-information links provide the starting points for organizational due diligence.

Summary Verdict

The website is legitimate, established, and trustworthy. Its identity, operating history, reputation, page content, and observed behavior form a consistent profile with no contradictory risk signals.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site uses a trusted CDN/WAF configuration, and both observed addresses were protective edge servers rather than identified origin candidates. This reduces direct origin exposure and provides a useful security mitigation, although infrastructure protection is not independently treated as proof of legitimacy.

Closing Assessment

Normal interaction, including standard use and account login where officially offered, is appropriate; prospective commercial partners should apply routine counterparty and privacy due diligence proportionate to the intended relationship.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about respostas.com.br at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
