Full analysis

Security Alert

Fortinet, Kaspersky, Sophos flagged this site in external intelligence checks, indicating elevated compromise/scam exposure that requires immediate caution.

This website is a domain-marketplace listing for TeamFlick.com, presenting the domain for sale through Spaceship with a fixed purchase price, a lease-to-own option, offer submission, owner contact, and redirection to the marketplace for transaction completion.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site presents itself as a straightforward domain-sale listing rather than a financial, investment, or credential-login service. Its page offers TeamFlick.com for $4,888, a lease-to-own arrangement of $407.33 for 12 months, and forms for making an offer or contacting the owner; the page analysis found no brand impersonation, hidden forms, wallet activity, or password collection. Those benign page characteristics do not offset the materially adverse external evidence: the domain is confirmed blacklisted, with 11 malicious and 2 suspicious detections, including detections from three major security providers. Nine abuse reports also concern the observed Amazon CDN IP; those reports are attributed to shared infrastructure, so they are not independently conclusive about this domain, but the attribution does not remove the separate domain-level blacklist concern. No phishing or impersonation finding was recorded in the page-content analysis, but the combined external detections establish a serious risk for sensitive interaction.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage is titled “TeamFlick.com for sale | Spaceship.com” and displays the $4,888 purchase option, $407.33 × 12 lease-to-own option, offer form, and owner-contact form.
- External reputation telemetry records 11 malicious detections, 2 suspicious detections, and a confirmed blacklist hit.
- The observed IP, 52.40.42.113, has 9 abuse reports; the attribution identifies Amazon Technologies Inc. shared CDN infrastructure as the subject.
- Registry telemetry lists creation on 2026-06-20T18:19:17Z and an age of 0.17 years.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The apparent business model is domain brokerage and marketplace facilitation, not a regulated financial product. The available content does not claim a financial license or provide a licensing authority or registration number; this is a verification gap rather than, by itself, evidence of fraud. The domain’s real-world operator remains unverified. A registration record names Oluwasanmi OLAJIDE and lists DropCatch.com 413 LLC as registrar, while historical provenance records materially different continuity indicators; that discrepancy should be treated as an identity and provenance question, not as proof of an identity contradiction. The separate broker-intelligence check produced no match, which provides no independent reputational support or adverse finding.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage identifies the service as a domain marketplace listing and states that transaction completion is redirected to Spaceship.com.
- The registration record lists registrar DropCatch.com 413 LLC and registrant name Oluwasanmi OLAJIDE.
- Historical archive telemetry records a domain age of 11.671457905544148 years, 0 snapshots, first seen 2014-12-18T10:14:35Z, last seen 2025-07-10T01:47:16Z, and 12 years tracked.
- The page contains no stated license authority or license number.

What to Verify Next

Before any sensitive interaction, an independent party should confirm that the listing is genuinely hosted and transacted through the official Spaceship marketplace, validate the seller’s authority to transfer the domain through a documented escrow or registrar process, and confirm the applicable refund, dispute, and buyer-protection terms through independently sourced official channels. Any licensing or registration requirement applicable to the intended transaction should be checked with the relevant jurisdictional registry, although the presented activity appears to be domain sales rather than a regulated investment service.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage provides the stated transaction path to Spaceship.com, which should be independently confirmed rather than followed solely from the listing.
- The offer and contact forms request first name, last name, email, and phone number, creating a need to validate the transaction recipient before submission.
- The listing advertises purchase, lease-to-own, and offer mechanisms, each of which should be matched against independently obtained marketplace terms.
- The page states “Buyer protection program,” “Secure payments,” and “Fast and easy transfer”; these claims should be confirmed in the official marketplace’s own terms.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is critical trust risk, with sensitive interactions not supported by the available evidence. The website may be a genuine marketplace listing in presentation, but its identity remains unverified and the adverse external reputation evidence creates a decisive basis for treating account, personal-data, and payment activity as unsafe.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site is protected by AWS CDN/WAF infrastructure, and all observed addresses were CDN edge servers rather than an independently observable origin. This provides a meaningful defensive layer against direct origin exposure, but it is only a mitigating infrastructure characteristic and does not establish the legitimacy of the website or its operator.

Closing Assessment

The appropriate enterprise posture is passive review only; credential submission, personal-data submission, offers, and payment activity should be withheld unless the transaction path and responsible party are independently validated through trusted channels.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about teamflick.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
