Full analysis

Overview

The Body Shop website is an established online storefront for nature-inspired skincare, body care, haircare, fragrance, gifts, and beauty products, presenting visible pricing, promotions, delivery information, customer support, returns, loyalty membership, subscriptions, gift cards, and conventional consumer-commerce functionality.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradictions were observed. The homepage presents a coherent retail business model, with named products, visible prices, customer policies, and standard consumer features rather than high-risk financial or crypto mechanics. Technical interaction testing found no hidden forms, wallet activity, suspicious scripts, cloaking, or external posting behavior, and no brand-impersonation signal was identified.

- Homepage: single form identified as a newsletter opt-in; no login form, hidden form, or untrusted destination detected.
- Homepage: skincare, body-care, haircare, fragrance, gift, delivery, returns, and customer-support content presented coherently.
- Site behavior: zero external XHR requests, zero wallet-connect runs, zero suspicious inline scripts, and zero cloaking detections.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site operates as a consumer retail storefront rather than a regulated financial-service platform. Its available content includes legal disclosures, delivery and returns information, customer support, accepted payment methods, and loyalty-program information. No regulated-sector license claim or registration number is presented; this is a limited transparency note, not evidence of fraud. A separate broker-reputation dataset produced no match.

- Domain registration: 1996-10-01; age 29.85 years; registrar MarkMonitor Inc.; expiry 2026-09-30.
- Web archive: 1,261 snapshots from 2000-06-21 through 2026-07-18, spanning 27 tracked years.
- Hosting: AS13335, CLOUDFLARENET - Cloudflare, Inc., US.
- TLS certificate: issuer YE1; DV validation; valid to 2026-10-17 04:58:04 UTC.

What to Verify Next

For procurement or institutional onboarding, confirm the applicable contracting entity and consumer-law disclosures through the site’s legal pages and independently sourced corporate channels. For ordinary purchases, retain order, delivery, and returns records in accordance with standard commercial practice.

- Homepage: displays delivery terms, customer support access, returns information, and accepted payment methods.
- Legal and policy pages: identified as available within the storefront content.
- Account and commerce functions: loyalty membership, subscriptions, gift cards, and affiliate referrals are described.

Summary Verdict

The website presents as a legitimate, established, and trustworthy consumer-commerce entity with a mature operating history, coherent business purpose, clean external reputation, and no observed contradiction or impersonation signal. Normal interaction, including account login and standard use, is appropriate.

Infrastructure Integrity

Cloudflare CDN/WAF protection places the observed address behind edge infrastructure, with the origin server not observable in this analysis. This reduces direct origin exposure and is a mitigating infrastructure characteristic, but does not independently establish legitimacy.

Closing Assessment

Prospective users may proceed with normal account and purchasing activity, applying ordinary account-security and transaction-record practices.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about thebodyshop.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
