Full analysis

Overview

An educational website for primary-school multiplication practice, Timestables.co.nz presents times-table exercises, speed tests, diplomas, printable worksheets, and interactive games through an apparently free, advertising-supported learning service.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

No contradiction-based scam, phishing, impersonation, or blacklist concern was observed. The homepage presents a coherent educational purpose, while behavioral testing found no cloaking, hidden forms, wallet activity, clipboard manipulation, suspicious scripts, or untrusted form destinations. The site's established historical presence and clean external reputation further support continuity between its identity and current use.

- The homepage contains times-table practice, speed tests, diplomas, worksheets, and educational games.
- Behavioral testing recorded 2 successful runs, 0 hidden forms, 0 wallet-drainer runs, and 0 suspicious inline scripts.
- The domain was registered on 2016-09-19 (~9.87 years old).
- Historical records contain 145 snapshots spanning 2008–2026, with 19 years tracked.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The site appears to provide educational content rather than a regulated financial service. No license or registration number is claimed in the supplied site evidence; this is a limited disclosure point for organizations applying formal vendor or educational-provider checks, not evidence of deception. The available reputation context contains no matched broker record.

- The supplied site content contains no stated license, registration number, or regulatory authority.
- The domain registrar is Key-Systems GmbH.
- The site is hosted on AS14061 (DigitalOcean, LLC, US).
- TLS is issued by YR2 at DV validation level and is valid through 2026-10-19.

What to Verify Next

Organizations with formal onboarding requirements should confirm any applicable educational-provider registration through the relevant jurisdictional registry and validate official support channels through an independently sourced contact route. Standard account and site-use checks may then proceed under normal organizational controls.

- The homepage provides login and registration functionality.
- The service identifies its audience as students, teachers, and parents through its account flows.

Summary Verdict

The overall posture is legitimate, established, and trustworthy. No contradiction-based concern undermines the site's identity or ordinary operation, and normal interaction is appropriate.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site uses CDN/WAF protection, with the observed edge address 159.89.36.112 associated with AS14061 (DigitalOcean); no origin candidate was identified. This reduces direct infrastructure exposure and is a mitigating control, but it is not independently proof of legitimacy.

Closing Assessment

Normal browsing, login, and standard account use are appropriate, subject to the organization's routine procurement and account-security policies.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about timestables.co.nz at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
