Full analysis

Overview

The website is an online CFD brokerage and investment platform presenting access to Forex, cryptocurrencies, shares, indices, commodities, ETFs, copy trading, automated trading, account funding, and packaged investment plans. Its apparent business model is to solicit customer deposits for custodial trading activity while promoting trading access and specified investment returns.

Scam/Impersonation Risk

The site presents a critical interaction risk. External intelligence identifies the domain as blacklisted by two sources, including multiple malicious detections, which is a decisive contradiction for a platform requesting account registration, credentials, deposits, and withdrawals. The homepage also promotes fixed or guaranteed returns and aggressive high-yield investment plans while providing limited verifiable evidence for those claims; this creates a material claim-to-evidence gap in a financial context. The site's login, sign-up, payment/deposit, and withdrawal forms extend the risk from passive browsing to sensitive financial interaction. A separate abuse report concerns the shared hosting provider's IP rather than the website itself, and is therefore discounted as site attribution; it does not remove the domain-level blacklist concern. No separate brand-impersonation or conflicting legal-identity finding was observed.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage describes CFD, Forex, cryptocurrency, shares, indices, commodities, ETF, copy-trading, and automated-trading services while soliciting account creation and funding.
- The investment-plan content promotes specified or guaranteed returns without corresponding regulatory or performance evidence in the captured material.
- The homepage contains login, sign-up, payment/deposit, and withdrawal forms, creating a direct sensitive-interaction surface.
- Domain provenance records 13 archive snapshots spanning 2023–2025, with an assessed domain age of 2.78 years.

Regulatory Verification Notes

The website's Legal & Regulation and company-related content does not establish a verifiable legal operator, regulator, license authority, or license number for the financial services being promoted. This is a substantive regulatory-transparency gap, particularly because the site solicits deposits and presents itself as a broker. The available evidence is consistent with an unverified operator identity rather than a proven regulated entity. The external broker-reputation dataset contained no name match, but that absence is contextual only and does not counter the domain-level blacklist or the site's own disclosure deficiencies.

EVIDENCE

- The captured navigation includes “Legal & Regulation,” “About Us,” and “Company” sections, but the supplied content does not provide a verifiable regulator, license number, or legal entity.
- The site's transport certificate is domain-validated, issued by YR1, and valid through 2026-12-11.
- The domain is served on AS46475 by LIMESTONENETWORKS — Limestone Networks, Inc., United States.
- The registration record identifies Hello Internet Corp. as registrar.

What to Verify Next

Before any interaction beyond passive viewing, an institution should independently confirm the operator's legal name and licensing status with the relevant financial regulator, using regulator-controlled records rather than links or contact details supplied by the site. The legitimacy of the deposit, withdrawal, and account-support channels should also be confirmed through an independently sourced route, and any proposed payment destination should be checked for consistency with the verified legal entity. Credentials used elsewhere should not be submitted to this site, and no funds should be transferred unless the operator and applicable consumer protections have been independently established.

EVIDENCE

- The homepage exposes account login and sign-up functions alongside payment/deposit and withdrawal functions.
- The site presents itself as a brokerage and investment platform rather than a purely informational service.
- The captured content contains high-stakes return claims without corresponding verifiable regulatory evidence.

Summary Verdict

The website has a critical trust posture and should be treated as unsuitable for sensitive interaction. The evidence shows convergence between domain-level threat detections, financial solicitation mechanics, unsupported return claims, and an unverified operating identity.

Infrastructure Integrity

The site resolves directly to a likely origin address on Limestone Networks without a detected CDN or WAF layer. This provides no meaningful protective separation between the service and its hosting environment; infrastructure stability or valid TLS should not be interpreted as evidence of legitimacy.

Closing Assessment

The appropriate enterprise disposition is to restrict the site to passive observation, block credential and payment interaction, and require independent regulatory and operator validation before any business engagement is considered.

About this assessment

A trust score summarises the evidence TrustSniffer could collect about zederinvestment.com at assessment time. It is a starting point for your own judgement, not a guarantee: a high score means the signals were consistent with a legitimately operated site, a low or critical score means several risk patterns were present.

TrustSniffer assesses a website from the evidence it can collect at a point in time: domain registration and age, hosting and certificate, the content the site served, and third-party reputation feeds. A score is a summary of that evidence, not a guarantee and not a legal finding. There is no human rating and no user review in it. A site can change after it is assessed.
